Governor signs bill that wipes out county wage hike

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG

FORT MADISON - Governor Terry Branstad signed into law Thursday House Bill 295 stripping local governments rights to set a minimum wage other than the state minimum. The Lee County Board of Supervisors Tuesday passed an ordinance that bumped the wage to $8.20 but the new law is effective upon signing and will preempt the new ordinance.

“Different county minimum wages create confusion, especially for cities that are in more than one county,” Branstad wrote on his website after signing the bill. “This bill provides uniformity through the state on Iowa’s minimum wage.

It does nothing to force businesses to pay employees less than they are currently paying. I want to thank all of those who worked hard to provide local governments and Iowa businesses with predictability.”

Lt. Gov. Kim Reynolds agreed with the governor’s assessment.

“We know most employers in the state are paying well above the minimum wage, but different county minimum wages creates confusion and prevents Iowa from growing,” said Lt. Gov. Kim Reynolds. “Our focus has always been on creating an environment where businesses can succeed and we can attract more good paying jobs. This legislation takes the necessary steps to eliminate the confusion that exists today.”

The Flower Cottage celebrates 40th year in business

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG

FORT MADISON - With the sweet scent of floral arrangements and polished wood, the Flower Cottage quietly rolled over 40 years in business on Friday.

Despite being in her current location for close to 10 years, Diane Spiekermeier celebrated the full 40 in the flower and plant business with an Ambassador Call on Friday morning at the business located at 1135 Avenue E.

Spiekermeier has had several locations in Fort Madison including on Avenues R, H, and G, but she says this move to the joint venture of the Hill Side Inn and Flower Cottage at 1135 Avenue will probably be her last.

“We’ve moved twice now and I think this will be our landing spot until I either retire or expire,” Spiekermeier said to a good laugh from the Fort Madison Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors.

Spiekermeier worked for almost 18 years at the Bonny Buyer and was looking to get out of the business when the opportunity arose to spin off the Flower Cottage when Matt Mohrfeld got out of the retail side and went to the wholesale market.

OBITUARIES

RONALD WAGNER

Ronald Wagner, 48, of Montrose, IA drowned on Tuesday, January 3, 2017 as a result of a boating accident on the Mississippi River at Montrose and he was recovered on Wednesday, March 29, 2017 near Keokuk.

He was born on January 29, 1968 in Ft. Madison to Roy L. and Geraldine Nelle Wagner. Ron was a certified mechanic and a logger. He was a commercial fisherman following in his dad’s footsteps and he passed that love down to his son, Sheldon. Ron also enjoyed hunting and spending time with his friends.

Survivors include his son Sheldon Wagner of Ft. Madison; a daughter, Sheena Wagner of Montrose; his dad, Roy Wagner of Montrose; his mom, Jerri Welsh of Washington, MO and a sister, Janet (Eric) Rudd of Washington, MO. He was preceded in death by his grandparents.

The graveside service will be held on Saturday, April 8, 2017 at 1 PM at Montrose Cemetery with Reverend Bill Willis officiating. Cremation has been entrusted to King-Lynk Funeral Home & Crematory.

A memorial has been established in his memory and online condolences may be left at www.kinglynk.com.

hazardous as the other holidays. Obviously Valentine’s Day is the biggest day of the year as far as sales, but she said it can be a handful.

One of the things the staff, of which there are nine, enjoys is the “Designing for Dummies” classes that are held at different times during the year.

Sandy Kassmeyer, one of the key staff at the store, said the idea came about very quickly years back and Spiekermeier asked her to teach the classes.

“My being an old 4-H girl I said “OK, I’ll do them” and I started them but she took over because when you repeat the same thing over and over...but they are really popular,” Kassmeyer said. “They started on Avenue G and we were doing them in the evening and that’s what kind of led to the bar and flower shop idea,” Kassmeyer said.

Hours for the Flower Cottage are Monday-Friday 8:30 to 4 and Saturday 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

FMHS boys and girls track teams run at the Mt. Pleasant Co-Ed meet on Friday with the Lady Hounds landing three first-place finishes and the boys with two.

Holy Trinity Catholic junior Brett Schneider continues to rack up firsts in the 800-meter run. Schneider finished six seconds ahead of the pack on the girls side with a 2:24.93 time.

The ladies distance medley team of Kamryn Bailey, Brynn Schroeder, Sierra Howardson, and Schneider also took first-place again about six seconds ahead of the crowd with a 4:30.82. Howardson also took first place in the girls 3200-meter run with a time of 11:00.41.

Elijah Barnes continues to look good. He threw another personal record last night. "It was a cold night with great competition," boys coach Erin Brenner said. "Elijah Barnes continues to look good. He threw another personal record last night."

Brenner said freshman Schneider is looking more comfortable with the 400 hurdles and Steffensmeier ran a strong 800.

"Gehle and I felt much better about his wheelchair race times last night," she said. All the Hound results are listed below.
