Smash Mouth, Jon Pardi highlight 2017 rodeo

Up-and-comer Cody Johnson to take stage Thursday night

BY PCC STAFF

BURLINGTON - Only shootin’ stars break the mold, and The Tri-State Rodeo always bring their share of stars.

The TSR committee announced their national entertainment lineup on Saturday at the Boogalo Copenhagen. In addition to the wildly popular CINCH Shootout on Wednesday, this year’s national entertainment is set to include rock band Smash Mouth and national country recording stars Jon Pardi and Cody Johnson.

The 79th annual rodeo will be held September 6-9 and showcases exciting rodeo acts as well as professional musical entertainment. And once again this year, new and exciting things are planned for audiences of all ages.

Wednesday night will once again feature the CINCH Shootout featuring the top rodeo cowboys in the nation. This invitation-only event will begin at 7:00 p.m. and will bring elite athletes, including many World Champions, to the Tri-State Rodeo in Fort Madison to compete for over $120,000 in prize money.

This event is sponsored by CINCH Jeans.

The PRCA action will start on Thursday with rodeo performances beginning at 7 p.m. Once again this year a national music act will follow the rodeo competition. Up-and-coming country music artist, Cody Johnson, will take the stage in the arena. A former bull rider himself, Johnson knows how to thrill the crowd with his highly charged music.

Friday evening’s rodeo performance begins at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by Smash Mouth. Twenty years after their award-winning Fush Yu Mang (FYM) album, Smash Mouth, who climbed the charts with “All Star”, will rock the stage at the Tri-State Rodeo. They are still as vibrant and vital as ever, bringing energy and fun to Friday night’s event.

Saturday night’s entertainment also gets underway at 7:30 p.m. with the PRCA rodeo performers taking center stage. They will be followed by the Academy of Country Music New Male Vocalist of the Year for 2017, Jon Pardi. His one-of-a-kind voice brings a positive edge to even the toughest emotional scenarios. His newest album, California Sunrise features “Head Over Boots,” “She Ain’t It” and #1 Hit, “ Dirt on My Boots.” Pardi is sure to pack the arena.

Neighborhood watch group wants to help with cemetery flags

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG

FORT MADISON - Not only is this neighborhood group helping fight crime, but now they are taking on a big patriotic task.

The 34th Place Neighborhood Watch, a group of neighbors that have banded together to help protect each other’s property and well-being, are now asking for the community’s help in replacing the flags on Soldier’s Circle in Oakland Cemetery on Avenue O.

The group says the flags are in poor condition and there is no budget anywhere to replace the flags. The Fort Madison Fire Department has taken on the responsibility of putting up and bringing down the flags, but nothing is in place to replace the flags.

“iThe VFW used to put up all the flags out there, but everyone is not here anymore,” said group member Berl Cartwright.

“The fire department, through family ties, just kind of inherited the flags and put them up, but there is no funding anywhere whatsoever, to replace those flags.”

The flags cost $32.90 each if purchased in groups of more than 50, so the group is looking to raise $2,000 to purchase enough flags to replace the worn ones or have flags donated, but they are asking that the flags have the dimensions of 5.5’ x 9’ and be all-nylon, all-weather flags.

What we’re trying to do on Soldier’s Circle is help the fire department and say “Here’s some backups.”

Two of the group’s members have volunteered to take all calls to make donations and provide additional information. Jon Gill can be reached at 319-372-7475 and Lorie Seager can be reached at 319-470-9376. Anyone interested in donating a flag or donating money to the project, would need to call these two ladies, said group member Steve Howard.

The group is hoping to have enough flags to replace the worn ones by Memorial Day so they are setting a May 12 goal to have enough flags donated or money raised to purchase the flags.

Lady Hounds take FMHS net invitational

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

FORT MADISON - The FMHS girls tennis team is winning key match ups and excelling in doubles work as they continue their winning ways this year.

The Hounds hosted a six-team invitational on Saturday and came away with the title as they capitalized on three runners up with two singles and doubles second-place finishes.

The invite scoring gave four points to each first-place finish for each school, with 2nd, 3rd and 4th receiving three, two, and one point, respectively.

The Hounds got 2nd place finishes from Katie Larson at No. 1 singles and Hope Gray at No. 2 singles. Kearstyn Johnson and Larissa Ferrill took 2nd in No. 1 doubles, while Mercedes Doty and Charissa Smith took fourth in No. 2 doubles.

Larson came up against 2016 state runner-up Anatta Chaoenkul in the championship match at No. 1 singles and took the first game off her. But after sizing up Larson a bit and som long rallies in the first and second games, Charoenkul was able to pull away for an 8-1 win.

"The girl Larson lost to was state runner up last year," said Head Coach Amy Doherty. "She is super good and Katie loves to have the opportunity to play her because it helps her to improve."

Larson advanced with an 8-4 win over Mt. Pleasant’s Thuan Tran 8-4, and then slid easily by Deepika Vemathri of Fairfield Maharishi 8-0 to face off against Charoenkul.

Larson was the only player to take a game off the Fairfield standout. At No. 2 singles Hope Gray slipped past Mt. Pleasant’s Quinn Whaley 8-2 in her first match and then rolled past Brigit Bianco of Maharishi 8-1 before running up against Fairfield’s Dayna Price and falling 8-6 for 2nd place.

"Hope looked well, too. She was pretty evenly matched to Price and put up a good fight."

Johnson and Ferrill received a bye in the first-round and then faced Maharishi’s Bridget Emmanuel and Bhavani Allison.

The two went back and forth through the first four games but ended up running away in the end for an 8-3 win to send them to the finals.

Keokuk’s Madison Etter and Allie Brookhart proved to be too much and took the title after a drawn out match, 8-6.

"Larissa and Kearstyn had tough competition in the Keokuk team and hung in there really well. They are really developing strongly as a team," Doherty said.

The team point totals for the day were Fort Madison 10, Fairfield and Keokuk tied with 8, West Burlington/Notre Dame had 7, Fairfield Maharishi had 4 and Mt. Pleasant finished with 3.

The Lady Hounds travel to Keokuk for a 4:30 dual meet on Monday.
