GRWWA brings in recycling “expert” for kids

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG

FORT MADISON - Rocky is coming from Adventure Bay to an adventure soon near you.

The character from the wildly popular kids show PAW Patrol is the new mascot for the Great River Regional Waste Authority. As part of the group’s educational programming on waste and the benefits of recycling, the group thought getting a mascot would help area children relate better to the benefits of recycling.

Wade Hamm, general manager of GRRWA, said most kids in the age group he’s looking to educate are familiar with PAW Patrol.

“The character from the wildly popular kids show PAW Patrol is the new mascot for the Great River Regional Waste Authority. As part of the group’s educational programming on waste and the benefits of recycling, the group thought getting a mascot would help area children relate better to the benefits of recycling.

“We were discussing it through our environmental management system. Once your EMS you have six core items you have to work on to show continuous improvement and one of them is recycling. We came up with the idea for presentations for different ages of people. Somebody just came up with the idea of what if we had a mascot, and we kicked around the idea of what mascot to get. And every kid I know seven or under knows PAW Patrol and Rocky the Recycler is on PAW patrol so that’s where we got the idea for this particular mascot.”

Rocky will actually be at an event on May 23 at a Fort Madison elementary school as well as a June 24 house warming party. See story on page 2.

FM Y Week kicks off Monday

Local eateries open wallets to help with YMCA funding

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG

FORT MADISON - Starting Monday, the Fort Madison YMCA will be kicking off their annual fundraising campaign, and you can help simply by putting on your jeans, grabbing a bite to eat and getting some cookies.

Ryan Wilson, executive director of the Fort Madison YMCA, said the annual event is geared toward making it easy to help keep the Fort Madison YMCA viable and affordable for all families in the area.

He said programs like this are what helped him create the career he has now and empowered his family to be able to provide opportunities to him that helped craft his ambitions.

“I know first hand the impact of what an Annual Campaign can have on a family, and I am so appreciative of the opportunities I had because somebody chose to make a donation to the YMCA,” Wilson said.

Last year was the first year the YMCA reached out to the community with this type of event.

“This is the 2nd year doing Y week, and basically it’s trying to get the community and community employees involved in giving back to the YMCA. And then we approach businesses and individuals about donating to the YMCA,” Wilson said.

Mailings should have come out this week outlining the events going on in town that benefit the organization.

Hy-Vee, Central Lee students raise funds for “Alex”

By PCC STAFF

LEE COUNTY - The Lee County K-9 Association received more than $3,000 from local students and businesses toward the funding of a K-9 unit for the Lee County Sheriff’s Department.

Sixth graders from Central Lee Junior High School were the top fundraising class at the school and were treated to the ice cream sundaes served with Sheriff Stacy Weber and members of the Lee County Sheriff’s Dept. as well as the K-9 Association. Students at the school raised more than $1,300 to go toward funding “Alex” who is now in Arkansas going through some school raised more than $1,300 to go toward funding “Alex” who is now in Arkansas going through some training. That training will last about four weeks and the German Shepherd will be put through additional training in northern Iowa with his handler.

The Association then stopped by Fort Madison Hy-Vee to visit with Director Kim Jabber who presented the group with a check for $1,800 that was generated from the sheriff's department prior to becoming a part of the funds received more than $3,000 from local students and businesses toward the funding of a K-9 unit for the Lee County Sheriff’s Department.

THE LEE COUNTY K-9 ASSOCIATION

Sheryl “Sherry” Lee (Derksen) Nicklaus, 54, of Bata-via, Illinois, formerly of West Point, passed away peacefully on Monday, May 8, 2017 at her home surrounded by her family. Sherry was born on July 10, 1962 in Fort Madison, Iowa, the daughter of William and Rosanna (Boeding) Derksen. She was united in marriage to Dennis Nicklaus on June 20, 1987.

Sherry grew up in West Point, Iowa and graduated from the University of Iowa in 1984 with a degree in Elementary Education. Her first job after college was selling farm chemicals for Chevron. She later began her career in pharmaceutical sales, retiring in 2012 to spend time raising her daughters, a decision she never regretted. She devoted her time to her girls’ field trips and school events, and lovingly hosted many birthday parties, sleepovers, and Christmas gatherings for her daughters and their friends.

Sherry had many artistic talents and made the world a more beautiful place with her floral arrangements, drawings, and holiday wreaths. She had a passion for traveling internationally with her husband and family; visiting the world’s great art museums, learning about ancient civilizations, and empathizing with the struggles of indigenous people of the rainforest.

Sherry could make new friends wherever she went and touched everyone with her kindness and endless capacity for love. Sherry is survived by her loving husband, Dennis Nicklaus; two daughters, Liana (Li Ma) Nicklaus and Athena Nicklaus; two sisters, Deanna (the late Jerry) Krogmeier and Ginger (Ron) Westberg; one brother, Greg (Rita) Derksen; and several nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Sherry’s name may be made to: Fox Valley Food for Health (a truly caring local organization), Amazon Watch (for Sherry’s love of the rainforests), or the American Cancer Society.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.schmitzfuneralhomes.com. The Schmitz Funeral Home in West Point is assisting the family with arrangements.

MT. PLEASANT - Fort Madison's Brittnie Harris dug down somewhere and found some deep buried adrenaline and left teammates', parents', and coaches' jaws dropped as she threw a personal record and beat all at the Class 3A state qualifying track meet at Mt. Pleasant.

Harris, who was regularly throwing 33 to 33.5 in the shot put throughout the season, somehow found four extra feet and threw 37’9” to beat Mt. Pleasant's Grace Bittle by a full seven inches to win the title and advance to state.

The girls Distance Medley team of Kamryn Bailey, Maddy McVey, Sierra Howardson and Brett Schneider took 2nd place and also qualified for state with a time of 4:18.86.

Howardson also captured a state entry in the 400-meter hurdles taking 2nd place with a time 1:08.27 just .18 secs behind Fairfield's Aluna Olaniyi and right in front of Fairfield's Ashley Telleen in one of the closest races of the day. She took 3rd with a time 1:08.27 just .18 secs behind Fairfield's Aluna Olaniyi and right in front of Grace Bittle by a full seven inches to win the title and advance to state.

The girls 800-meter run was won by a time of 2:21.78 behind two Davenport Assumption runners and will have a shot at participating in that event at state.

Howardson took 4th in the 3000-meter run with a mark of 10:51.61, just 3.5 seconds behind the Assumption's Kyle Davidson and Kyle Schwenkel and only gave up one game in the best of three set match, 6-0, 6-1. Next up was Davenport Assumption and again the Fort Madison duo won in straight sets 6-3, 6-3.

The Hounds then faced some familiar faces in Read Reiter and Gavin Haner of Keokuk. Reiter and Haner had downed Hernandez and Seaney 6-4, 6-2 back on April 27 in Keokuk. But the FMHS seniors returned the favor with a 6-4, 6-4 straight set win over the Chiefs to advance to the final doubles match of the season, somehow found four extra feet and threw 37’9” to beat Mt. Pleasant's Grace Bittle by a full seven inches to win the title and advance to state.

tance,” Wilson said.

He said when the YMCA offers families membership assistance, those subsidies usually amount to more than 50% off regular memberships and the organization uses Y week to help, among other things, bridge that funding gap.

Fundraising begins on Monday with 20% off coupons at Pizza Hut with proceeds going to the YMCA. Tuesda and the YMCA between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. On Wednesday Amigos, will be donating 10% of all sales to the campaign. On Thursday, Atlas Steak & Smokehouse will donate 10% of sales to the YMCA as part of the restaurant’s “Sushi Night.” On Friday, the Eagles Club will have fish fry to raise funds for the YMCA from 5:30 to 8 p.m.. A $10 fish dinner includes beans, potato, salad, and a roll.

Also on Friday, local businesses are being encouraged to allow employees to wear jeans to work for $5 donation to the campaign.

Fort Madison Hy-Vee will donate $1 to the YMCA for every dozen cookies sold at the store during Y Week.

hold hazardous materials presentation at Kempker’s True Value here in Fort Madison.

According to the PAW Patrol website, Rocky is a mix-breed pup that always has handy resources. He’s an enthusiastic recycling dog with a thousand ideas for recycling.

“When we go to the school and make presentation to the younger kids they’ll all associate with this and we think that will help,” Hamm said.

Any youth groups interested in having Rocky come to the school as part of GRRWA presentations should contact the authority at 319-372-6140.

“It’s our plan to get the word out. They always say the younger you get them involved, the more it will carry through,” Hamm said. “We’ll do our best to make arrangements for them.”
