MONTROSE - A Lee County deputy shot a suspect in a home invasion early Monday morning near Montrose.

Lee County Sheriff's deputies were called to Lot #212 around 12:30 a.m. Monday morning where Joshua V. Welborn, 29, had allegedly gained entrance to a home and was subsequently shot by Lee County Deputy Dakota Foley after failing to respond to commands.

According to Sheriff Stacy Weber, the homeowner was home at the time of the incident and the suspect was taken to Fort Madison Community Hospital and transferred by AirEvac to the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics where he is said to have non-life threatening injuries.

"This was a burglary in progress and when our guys arrived the suspect confronted our officers on arrival and was shot," he said.

The homeowner had defensive wounds but declined medical treatment.

Lee County EMS, Fort Madison Police, Iowa State Patrol, Lee County Attorney's office, the Iowa Department of Criminal Investigations and AirEvac were called for assistance.

The shooting of investigation is now being handled by the Iowa Attorney General's office and the Iowa DCI.

Lee County is investigating the burglary and charges are pending.

Games, music, and more on tap for RiverFest

Online registrations now open for summer games, events

FORT MADISON - Plans continue to take shape for the 2017 RiverFest being held Aug. 3-6 at Riverview Park in Fort Madison.

A committee, headed by Charles and Jenny Craft of Fort Madison, is bringing the event back again for a second run after a successful event in 2016.

Craft has already signed a national entertainer in country recording artist Buddy Jewell and is upgrading the stage to a fully integrated hydraulic performance stage from Thunder and Lightning productions and has brought in a top-notch light and sound person for the main stage shows.

"He's one of the best around, you won't want to miss this," "We're really just doubling our efforts this year," Craft said. "This year a lot of great people have stepped forward and we think we have a really good community event in the works," he said. "We've come up with some signature events and it will continue to grow year to year. There's something here for everybody.

The event website is up and running at www.riverfestfm.com. Registrations can be made and e-tickets can be purchased online that can be scanned at different performances throughout the four-day festival.

Fort Madison's own Shawn Moss, who covers Garth Brooks nationally, will perform after Jewell. Moss performs under the stage name Shawn Gerhard, but will use his real name for this homecoming event.

Craft said the committee is really focusing on the games this year and Doug and Shanna Krogmeier are committee chairs for the games again this year.

"We've come up with some signature events and it will continue to grow year to year. There's something here for everybody."

"I got in the ground floor of this," Krogmeier said. "We had a good year last year, but we've added some things this year and we're going to keep growing this until we max out," he said.

Krogmeier said all games have registrations that are currently open at www.riverfestfm.com under the Games link at the top. Krogmeier said people should register early online to save time the day of the event and registering is very simple through the website. He also said the tournaments are 100% payback. Craft announced Monday that the tournaments are 100% payback. He also said the tournaments are 100% payback.

"We would love for everyone to register early. We shut it off a week before the games are held," he said.

The 5K Run/Walk will take place on Aug. 5 at 8 a.m. with registration open now through July 26. Registration for the run is $25 through July 26th and $35 after that til race day. Packet pickup is at Riverview Park next to the shelter house on Friday, Aug. 4th between 6 and 8 p.m. and on the day of race between 6:45 and 7:30 a.m.

The volleyball tournament is also set for Saturday the 5th. Registration is open now and ends July 28th. Online registration is $50 for each team of six and closes July 28. The cost moves to $60 if you register your team the day of the event and that registration starts at 8 a.m. with games starting at 9 a.m. All ages and skill levels are welcome to participate in the double elimination tournament. Matches will be best of three with payouts going to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place.

The co-ed tournament is limited to the first 24 teams and each team is only allowed three males on the court at any given time. Anyone under 18 must have a signed permission form. Bags, or cornhole, are also back this year. Krogmeier said last year they had a very good turnout, but he's hoping to double it this year.

"We're hoping to keep growing these events until they are maxed out," he said.

Bags online registration also ends on July 28 with a $20 fee for each team of two. Day of registration fee is $30 and begins at 9:30 a.m. on Aug. 5. Games start at noon and are two player games and try to rev up for the festival this year," Craft said. Other musical acts scheduled for the festival include local favorites Cap'n Geech and the Shrimp Shack Shooters and The Ozone Ramblers, and BluzyDoo, a Chicago-style blues band. Craft announced that Kookuk-based UGSTR, will be getting back together for a show at the festival on Saturday as well.

Stay up to date with Pen City Current and www.Riverfest.com for additions to this year's event.
