ISP: Saturday melee involved 50 offenders

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG  PCC EDITOR

FORT MADISON - A Saturday melee that resulted in a lockdown at ISP is coming under fire from a union head who says it points to a larger problem of understaffing. However Iowa Department of Corrections officials said the incident was handled professionally and efficiently by staff on hand at the time.

Lettie Proll, Iowa Department of Corrections spokeswoman said approximately 50 offenders were involved in the altercation on Saturday.

"The department continues to investigate the situation," Proll said today. "In the meantime, the department confirms approximately fifty offenders were involved in the altercation. The correctional officers showed exceptional professionalism, skill, and care for the offenders' safety, and they responded and gained control of the incident immediately. They did a great job."

However Danny Homan, president of the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, said information he received from a correctional officer told a different story.

"The Iowa Department of Corrections did a shameful job of reporting the true scope of the riot resulting in a lockdown at the Iowa State Penitentiary on Saturday," Homan said in a statement released today. "The so-called "multiple offenders" was actually at least 72 inmates, and the reported lack of weapons failed to mention the tennis rackets that were used as weapons in the racially-motivated fight. The only detail they did get right was the swift de-escalation of the riot by the responding Correctional Officers."

"According to a Correctional Officer from ISP, this was the scariest situation that he and many of his colleagues had ever encountered on the job," Homan said.

Sheriff’s K9 shows up at Supervisors’ meeting

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG  PCC EDITOR

MONTROSE - Last fall Lee County Sheriff Stacy Weber made a campaign promise to bring a K9 unit onto the sheriff’s staff.

That promise named “Alex” made a panting entrance at the Lee County Board of Supervisors meeting on Tuesday with Deputy Uriah Wheatley at the leash.

The full bred German Shepherd will work solely with Wheatley as his handler and was picked up this week by Weber and Wheatley and will head back to Fort Dodge for an additional four weeks of training starting next week.

Weber said Alex had to showcase his training as a test prior to leaving the training center in Fort Dodge.

“He had to walk among about 10 cars and pick out the one that had the contraband in it,” Weber said “He recognized the right vehicle and when they opened the doors you could see it was in there.”

The Shepherd is mostly black in color with smatterings of brown and white on his legs and underside and was born in Poland.

Wheatley said the relationship is still being built and everything is new to Alex and the department.

“We’re moving quick progress. We’ve only had him for about 36 hours and we’re already seeing improvements.”

Alex will live and work with the handler to create the critical bond that will result in the best performance of the team.

The two will spend most of their time with each other. Wheatley said he will be building a privacy fence at his home for the animal to have a bit more space to live.

Union leader questions ISP staffing

in a statement released today. "Some of his longer serving counterparts recalled that the only incident to even come close to the magnitude of this violent outbreak was the ISP riot in 1981. This may very well have been the single largest prison fight in our state's history. The fact that no staff were injured and the involved inmates only sustained minor injuries is a miracle."

But Prell pointed to the quick resolution as an indicator of the preparedness of the facility to handle the fight. She also said Homans choice of words is a deliberate attempt to invoke a strong reaction.

"Using terms like "riot" and "violent uprising" to describe the altercation that occurred on Saturday, July 1 indicates either a lack of understanding of these terms, or a deliberate attempt to invoke a strong, emotional reaction. While there was a large fight between offenders, there were no assaults on staff, no hostages, and no damage to property," she said.

“All of the information in the department's press release was accurate and timely. There was an incident involving multiple offenders on the yard. Staff responded swiftly and gained immediate control of the situation. While responding to the incident there were no noted injuries to staff. Only minor injuries to offenders were reported, and no weapons were known to be involved.”
Great River Regional Waste Authority reminds you to use the 3 R’s!

REUSE
- Reuse products for the same purpose or for a different purpose
  - It makes economic & environmental sense to reuse products. Sometimes it takes a creative mind to do so.
  - Sell or Donate old clothes, appliances, toys & furniture
  - Use resealable containers rather than plastic wrap
  - Reuse grocery bags or bring your own cloth bags to the store

REDUCE
- Reduce the amount of waste produced in society
  - The best way to manage waste is to not produce it. This can be done by shopping carefully and being aware of a few guidelines.
  - Buy durable goods & products in bulk
  - Avoid over-packaged & disposable goods
  - Use cloth napkins/towels instead of paper napkins/towels
  - Make 2-sided copies whenever possible
  - Maintain central files for multiple individuals
  - Use electronic mail/communications or a central bulletin board

RECYCLE
- Recycle/convert common waste into reusable material
  - Recycling is a series of steps that takes a used material and processes, re-manufactures and sells it as a new product. Begin recycling at home and work.
  - Recycle all acceptable products at our recycling bins, stations & trailers (see www.grrwa.com for a complete list of locations)
  - Check for curbside recycling acceptable items & schedules on your local city websites
  - Purchase and use recycled materials for the home & office
  - Implement a composting process for your lawn & garden

Lady Hounds end regular season with home losses

FORT MADISON - The Fort Madison Bloodhounds softball team dropped both games of a double header on Monday against Keokuk. The Hounds opened district play Thursday against Keokuk on the road.

The Hounds fell 9-1 in the first game and 15-5 in a second game that saw a rare start for junior Teryn Parsons.

Parsons went the distance giving up all 15 runs, 14 earned, while allowing 12 hits, and walking four. Senior Chayse Lowney led FM at the plate going 3-of-4 with a double, a run scored, and an RBI.

Sadie Smithburg, Kamryn Bailey, Olivia Williams, and Jada Lamm all had singles for the Hounds in the second game. Lexi Schmidt and Bailey each had RBIs for the Hounds.

Keokuk sophomore catcher Jalynn Wood went 4-of-5 in the game with two doubles, a home run, and four RBIs to lead the Chiefs. MacKenzie Pezley also had four RBIs for Keokuk.

In the first game, Lowney had a single and scored the lone run for the Hounds. Bailey had a triple, and Williams had a single for the only hits for FMHS. Lowney went all seven innings giving up nine runs, all earned, on 12 hits. Abby Arrowood went 3-of-4 with two RBIs for Keokuk.

The Hounds are 10-26 and have dropped all four games against Keokuk so far this year.

FMHS senior Emily Mitchell stretches for a throw at first to get a Keokuk runner in game one of the doubleheader Monday night.
