Tri-State Rodeo asking for volunteers

Groups of more than 10 would be eligible for donation

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG

FORT MADISON - The Tri-State Rodeo committee is looking for volunteers to help with ticket taking, ushering and security this year. And a little time volunteered may be worth money to your favorite charity.

The ticket-taking and ushering during the rodeo performances in year’s past have been handled by the Denmark Ball Association, but that group stepped back this year due to number.

Tri-State Rodeo Chairman Josh Denning said the group has been invaluable to the rodeo. “They’re still involved and we just want to give a big thanks to the Denmark Ball Association for the past 25 years they’ve been involved with the rodeo,” Denning said.

He said volunteers are needed Wednesday through Saturday at different times for ushering, ticket-taking and security. “It all depends on the job they would be doing, but ushers typically work 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., ticket-takers from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. and security could be at different times throughout the day,” he said.

“Just give us a call and let us know where you can help and then we’ll reach back out to you closer to the rodeo and get you the information you need and the appropriate instruction.”

Denning also said the Tri-State Rodeo committee would make a charitable donation to groups of more than 10 that volunteer to help. “If we get a group of more than 10, we would provide a donation to the charity of their choice. Whether that’s...”

Vel’s Amigos goes up for sale online Monday

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG

FORT MADISON - After being on the market for close to a year, Vel’s Amigos, the iconic Fort Madison Mexican restaurant will go up for the highest bidder.

According to Corey Fraise of Fraise Auction & Real Estate, the auction will begin on Monday and run through August 22.

“This has been one of the most successful, family-owned restaurants for generations in Fort Madison,” Fraise said. “We’re excited to help them make sure it transitions smoothly.

Liza Garcia, whose family started the current location in 1983, said after a year being on the market the family decided to pursue an online sale instead of looking at another six months of listing.

“We discussed it and kind of just said let’s flip a coin and this is the way we decided to go,” Garcia said. The restaurant, located at 1226 36th Street in Fort Madison, was started by Daniel and Ophelia Garcia in 1983 after they branched off from El Zarape’s where they had started with the Guzmans in 1973.

She said the restaurant is selling turn key with everything being sold except some memorabilia on the walls.

“We spent many years creating our recipes and building this reputation and we’re turning it all over. It’s our hope that the buyers try to hold onto the traditions and the experiences that people have been getting here for generations,” she said.

“We’ve been very fortunate to have a good business with the people of Fort Madison. And it’s not just Fort...”

Here are some helpful tips:

Reduce
- Reduce the amount of waste produced in society
- The best way to manage waste is to not produce it. This can be done by shopping carefully and being aware of a few guidelines.
- Buy durable goods & products in bulk
- Avoid over-packaged & disposable goods
- Use cloth napkins/towels instead of paper napkins/towels
- Make 2-sided copies whenever possible
- Maintain central files for multiple individuals
- Use electronic mail/communications or a central bulletin board

Reuse
- Reuse products for the same purpose or for a different purpose
- It makes economic & environmental sense to reuse products. Sometimes it takes a creative mind to do so.
- Sell or Donate old clothes, appliances, toys & furniture
- Use resealable containers rather than plastic wrap
- Reuse grocery bags or bring your own cloth bags to the store

Recycle
- Recycle/convert common waste into reusable material
- Recycling is a series of steps that takes a used material and processes, re-manufactures and sells it as a new product. Begin recycling at home and work.
- Recycle all acceptable products at our recycling bins, stations & trailers (see www.grrwa.com for a complete list of locations)
- Check for curbside recycling acceptable items & schedules on your local city websites
- Purchase and use recycled materials for the home & office
- Implement a composting process for your lawn & garden

Reduction in Waste
- REUSE
- RECYCLE
- REDUCE
