Arrest made in Indian Path murder case
Suspect sentenced Thursday on federal gun charges, then first-degree murder charges filed on Friday in Lee County

FORT MADISON - A Burlington man who was being held in Muscatine County Jail on federal gun charges has been arrested on a first-degree murder charge out of Lee County and has been transferred to the Lee County Jail. Joseph Mayorga, Jr., 35, Burlington was transported to Lee County on Thursday and charges were filed Friday with the Lee County Attorney's office. Lee County Assistant Attorney Bruce McDonald will be handling the case. Mayorga is charged in the shooting death of James Merlin Nelson on or about Feb. 11, 2017. Nelson's body was discovered at the Indian Path Park on the north side of Hwy 61 along the Skunk River, just past the Des Moines/Lee county Line.

According to an official with the Muscatine County Jail, Mayorga was being held in custody there by the U.S. Marshal's office on a federal charge. According to federal court records, Mayorga was sentenced on Thursday to 8.5 years in prison and an additional three years supervised release on one count of unlawful transportation of firearms - felon in possession of a firearm.

Lee County Sheriff Stacy Weber said Mayorga was taken into custody about one week after the murder and has been in custody since that time so the investigation could run its course.

On February 11, 2017 the Lee County Sheriff's Office responded to a call of a possible deceased person at a Lee County roadside park near Weyer, Iowa. Upon arrival, a suspect later identified as 47-year-old Nelson, was found deceased. An autopsy performed on Nelson determined that he was killed.

Mistakes, penalties doom Hounds at home

FORT MADISON - De-spite more than 300 yards in total offense, the Fort Madison Bloodhounds couldn't find a way to keep Mt. Pleasant out of the endzone Friday night as the Hounds dropped their second game of the season 44-16 to the visiting Panthers. The Hounds found themselves in trouble early on when junior quarter back Zach Rechen found the Panther's Jordan Mag-nani open down the right side on the third play from scrimmage for a 55-yard touchdown. The Hounds put together a decent drive on their first possession converting two third downs and moving the ball to the Panthers' 4' before having to punt away.

The Panthers took over at their own 37 and marched 12 plays in the other direction and settled back Zach Rechen found the Panther's Jordan Mag-nani open down the right side on the third play from scrimmage for a 55-yard touchdown. OBITUARIES

NORMA JEAN BETHENOD

Norma Jean Bethenod, 87, passed away on April 12, 2017 in Victorville, California. Norma was born September 17, 1929 in Fort Madison and graduated from Fort Madison High School in 1947. She attended what was then Iowa State Teacher's College in Cedar Falls, Iowa (now the University of Northern Iowa), from 1947–1950. She then worked in accounting at Wright-Chrysler, Desoto, Dodge Plymouth dealership in Fort Madison. In 1955, Norma moved to Watsonville, California, to be closer to her parents and her two brothers, Richard and Robert Bethenod. In Watsonville, Norma worked in the offices of the Suburban Gas Company and at Granite Construction Company. In 1956, she moved to San Bernardino, California, where she worked for several different new car dealerships in Southern California. In 1970, after her father retired from the Santa Fe Railroad, she moved with her parents to Victorville, California, where she lived for the next 47 years. During most of this period she worked as the Office Manager for Victorville Motors, the local Chrysler-Plymouth dealer for that area.

Norma is survived by her brother, Robert Bethenod of Hillisborough, North Carolina. A brief graveside service will be held at 11:00 AM Monday, October 2, 2017 at Oakland Cemetery in Fort Madison. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society; contributions may be made at the graveside service or the Barr Memorial Chapel. Online condolences to the Bethenod Family may be made at www.barrmemorialchapel.com, Barr Memorial Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

JUDITH “JUDY” JOAN STEPHENSON

Judith “Judy” Jean Stephenson, 65, of Montrose, Iowa died Thursday, September 21, 2017 at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, Iowa City, Iowa. She was born October 6, 1951 in Fort Madison, Iowa, a daughter of Carl and Florence Hazel (Smalley) Miller. On September 1, 1968, she married Marion Stephenson in Fort Madison.

Judy worked as a CNA in nursing homes for years. Later she worked as the site manager at the Newberry Center before retiring. She was a member of the Calvary Assembly of God Church. She collected angels and enjoyed crossword puzzles, flea markets, and yard sales. She lived for her family, especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She loved Jesus.

She is survived by husband, Marion Stephenson of Montrose; three sons: Michael Stephenson of Fort Madison; Matthew (Amanda) Stephenson of Fort Madison; and Billy Stephenson of Montrose, Iowa; one daughter, Kathy Stephenson (Brad Nuebel) of Fort Madison; two brothers, Mike (Pat) Miller and Larry (Vicki) Miller both of California; two sisters, Beverly Lemon of Fort Madison and Nancy (Charles) Corns of Burlington; 17 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, one son Jason Stephenson, one daughter Crystal Ahlen, one brother Carl Miller Jr, and two sisters, Sally Gelsthorpe and Peggy Miller.

Visitation will be held from 10:00 -11:00 am Tuesday, September 26, 2017 at the Barr Memorial Chapel. A funeral service will follow and begin at 11:00 am Tuesday at the funeral home with Rev. Scott Gruning officiating. Burial will be at Oakland Cemetery, Fort Madison. A memorial has been established, contributions may be made at the Barr Memorial Chapel. Online condolences to the Stephenson Family may be at www.barrmemorialchapel.com.

ALTON RAY BROWN

Alton Ray Brown, 76, of Fort Madison, IA, passed away peacefully at 6:10 a.m. on Saturday, July 22, 2017 at the Donnellson Health Center in Donnellson, IA. He was born on November 6, 1940 in Camden County, MO to Raymond & Neva (Sel-lars-Brown) Becker. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1960 to 1970, a veteran of the Vietnam conflict, and later served two years in the Army National Guard in Lebanon & Hannibal, MO. He retired from the Iowa State Penitentiary in 2003, having served for more than two decades as a correctional officer.

Alton is survived by: 1-son: David E. Testa (wife Lisa) of Fredericksburg, VA; 1-sister: Carol M. Nelson (husband William) of St. Louis, MO.; 5-grandchildren; 3-great grandchildren; and 2-nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, 3-wives and 1-son: Ricky Lee Testa.

Per his wishes, cremation has been entrusted to King-Lynk Funeral Home & Crematory in Fort Madison, IA. Burial with honors will be at 10:45 a.m. Monday, September 25, 2017, at the West Entrance Shelter of Keokuk National Cemetery in Keokuk, IA. In lieu of flowers; the family is requesting any donations in Alton's memory be made to a worthy charity providing direct assistance to disabled U.S. military veterans. Online condolences to Alton's family may be left at the King-Lynk Funeral Home & Crematory website: www.kinglynk.com.
for a Donald Blancas extra point to make it 10-0. The Hounds went four and out on three carries by senior Alex Gully, who finished the game with 33 carries for 194 yards and a touchdown. The Panthers went four and out on three series by senior Keiran Kohorst on a 26-yard pass play and then three Fort Madison penalties, including a personal foul on 3rd and 10 that gave Mt. Pleasant a 1st and 10 at the 22-yard line. A holding penalty and an offside put the ball at the 7 and Beason found Levi Puig in the back of the endzone tangled up with Lorenzo Riles and Puig held onto the ball as he fell out of the back of the endzone resulting in a touchdown and the Panthers were up 23-9.

The Panthers squared off a low bouncing ball that was recovered at the Fort Madison 2, where Gully took the next carry for 28 yards on the next two carries. Barker got taken down for a loss on 1st and 10, but Gully carried the next two snaps for 14 yards total for another Hound first down at the 9-yard line. Barker missed a pass to Allen and the Hounds had to settle for a 14-yard field goal from A.J. Nolting to make it 10-3.

Beason completed a couple passes on the next series for Mt. Pleasant but the drive stalled and the Panthers' punt sent the Bloodhounds deep into their own territory. Barker lost 8 on 1st and 10 and two incomplete passes on back to the 27 and Gully took the first snap 21 yards scamper to make it 16-3.

Just four plays later, Beason broke free for a 13-yard kick-off return back to the 27 and Gully took the first snap 21 yards for the 40. Two more Gully carries for six yards had the Hounds at 3rd and 4 when Head Coach Tony Shiffman called a time out. Barker missed senior Lorenzo Riles II and brought up 4th and 4. Shiffman gambled and Barker hit Redd-Donald on a 16-yard pass to get to the Panther 14. Shiffman said going into halftime the Hounds had the momentum. "We came out and we were ready to go, but we didn't get that first down we needed and you could see the kids hang their heads."

He said now is not the time for the Hounds to forget how well they can play with Solon coming up next week and Mt. Pleasant fighting for a winning season. "They can't hang their heads. There are still too many winnable games and now they're fighting for a winning record. So we just have to regroup, get things going better, and keep moving forward. Barker finished the game with 26 yards on 12 carries for 33 yards total, and one interception. Redd-Donald dropped a couple balls in the first quarter but settled in with five catches for 33 yards and a touchdown.

The Hounds take their 3-2 record to Solon Friday. The Spartans knocked off Osceola 43-7 Friday night. Pictures on the game can be found on page 11 and www.penccurrent.com.

CARDINAL - The Holy Trinity girls volleyball team swept three matches in early round Southeast Iowa Superconference action Thursday night. The Crusaders dropped host Cardinal of Eldon, 21-11, 21-15 before stopping Mediapolis 21-17, 21-18 and then Van Buren 21-6, 21-14.

Senior Maya Rashid paced the Crusaders with 52 assists across all three matches including 19 in the last game of the night against Van Buren. She also had 25 digs, 2 blocks and was 19 of 20 serving with five aces.

Elsye Pothitakis was a perfect 25-0 of 25 serving with two aces and had 24 digs on the night. Eryn Anderson was also perfect at the line going 24 of 24 with two aces, 14 digs and at the net she was 27 of 34 on attacks with 12 kills. Madison Molfied was 15 of 15 attacking with eight kills. Sam Hoening again was a perfect 16 of 16 serving and had eight assists and four kills. Junior Taylor Boeding was 16 of 17 serving with two aces and was 28 of 31 at the net with 14 kills.

The 17-2 Crusaders finish up the conference tournament on Saturday at Southeastern Community College with the finals beginning at 5 p.m. In the state rankings the Crusaders dropped to 6th in Class 1A after two losses last week to New London and Fort Madison. The Crusaders beat New London in their next meeting at the Holy Trinity Classic. New London was ranked 5th in Class 1A in the latest poll released Thursday.

Area Fishing Report

The following is the weekly fishing report from the Iowa Department of Natural Resources. For the full statewide report visit www.iowadnr.gov.

Lake Big Hollow

Weathered warmed up; water temperature has reached the upper 70s. Black Crappie - Slow: Anglers are still finding the crappies in deeper water. Largemouth Bass - Fair: Go shallow in the early morning and late evening; as the day gets warmer flow them out to deeper water. Bluegill – Slow: Still look in deeper water, but the hungry ones are harder to find.

Lake Belva Deer

Water temperature is in the upper 70s. Fishing is still pretty slow; the water needs to cool off so the fish will come in shallow. Bluegill - Slow: Warm weather has slowed the bluegill bite again. Anglers have to work for them. Channel Catfish - Excellent: Catfish continue to bite. Black Crappie - Slow: Crappie fishing went from pretty good to hard to find.

Lake Darling

Water temperature is up to 78 degrees. Water clarity is not bad, but is still green. Largemouth Bass - Fair: A few smaller fish are being caught in shallow. The bigger bass are out around the deeper habitat. Black Crappie - Slow: Most anglers were still catching them out in deeper water (10-12 feet). The water needs to cool off before they come in shallow. Bluegill - Slow: Anglers are picking up some nice eating sized bluegills, but they have to work the deeper habitat fairly hard to find them. A few bluegills are starting to move in shallow.

Lake Goodke

Water temperature Tuesday morning was 78 degrees; wouldn’t be surprised to see 80 degrees in the bays. Water clarity is pretty good, but still tinted green. Bluegill - Slow: Most have moved back to the deeper side of the drop-offs. Black Crappie - Slow: Anglers are picking up some nice eating sized bluegills, but they have to work the deeper habitat fairly hard to find them. A few bluegills are starting to move in shallow.

Mississippi River Pool 19

Tilwater stage is 2.49 feet at Lock and Dam 18 above Burlington. We have not received any fishing reports for this pool this week. Channel Catfish - No Report: Try dip baits, nightcrawlers, or cut shad in brush piles and snags along the main channel and side channels. White Crappie - No Report: Use jigs and minnows/plastics or minnows under a bobber crappies in brush piles in the backwaters and flowing side channels.

River stages have risen some in the past 24 hours due to recent heavy rains. The river has muddied up some. Main channel water temperature is around 74 degrees. If you have questions on fishing Pools 16-19, contact the Fairport Fish Hatchery at 563-263-5062.

KEOKUK - The Lee County Narcotics Task Force reports the arrest of a Keokuk, Iowa man on felony and misdemeanor drug charges.

Alex Joseph Derr, 30, of 412 S 20th Street, Keokuk, Iowa was arrested on September 22nd, 2017 on felony and misdemeanor drug charges. Derr is charged with possession of methamphetamine and possession of drug paraphernalia, a simple misdemeanor. If convicted, Derr faces up to 16 years and 30 days in a state correctional facility. Derr was also arrested on two probation violation warrants.

The arrest of Derr stems from an investigation by the Keokuk Police Department into multiple 911 calls. Derr was encountered during this investigation and arrested on active warrants. During the course of the arrest, items that support the charges were discovered.

The Lee County Narcotics Task Force assisted the Keokuk Police Department in the subsequent investigation. The Lee County Attorney's Office and the Keokuk Police Department assisted the Lee County Narcotics Task Force in this investigation.

The defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

The Lee County Narcotics Task Force is funded in part by the U.S. Department of Justice and the funds administered by the Iowa Governor's Office of Drug Control Policy.

by a single gunshot to the head. According to Iowa Department of Criminal Investigations Special Agent Rick Rahn, since the body was discovered in Lee County, the court case would be handled there, however Mayorga has the option to ask for a change of venue.

Rahn declined to comment on specifics of the case, including when the actual shooting took place.

Detectives from the Lee County Sheriff’s Office-Criminal Investigations Division and Special Agents of the Iowa Department of Public Safety (DPS), and DCI launched an investigation at the scene and said the investigation took investigators to several jurisdictions. Early into the investigation, Mayorga became a suspect.

On Friday, charges were filed by Lee County Detective Chad Donaldson on Mayorga for Murder in the First Degree, a Class A Felony. If convicted, Murder in the First Degree carries a mandatory life imprisonment without the possibility of parole.

 Agencies who assisted in this investigation include Iowa Department of Public Safety (DPS), Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI), Des Moines County Sheriff’s Office, Henry County Sheriff’s Office, Iowa State Patrol, Muscatine County Sheriff’s Office, Southeast Iowa Narcotics Task Force, Burlington Police Department, Iowa State Fire Marshall’s Office, Iowa Division of Narcotics Enforcement, Fairfield Police Department, Iowa DNR, Intel Bureau, University of Iowa Decedent Care Center, and the Lee, Des Moines, Henry and Jefferson County Attorney’s Offices.
