Gully scores 5 TDs in FMHS rout of Chiefs

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

KEOKUK - Fort Madison Head football Coach Tony Shiffman said on Wednesday he wanted to open up some holes and let senior tailback Alex Gully run at Keokuk. That worked.

Gully, who missed last week's loss to Fairfield on a disciplinary issue, ran wild all over the Chiefs in a 48-24 rout Friday night at Keokuk's Calvert Stadium in front of a good crowd of Bloodhound fans.

Gully rushed 25 times for 354 yards and five touchdowns and had another 44-yard touchdown run called back on a holding penalty in the second period that resulted in a stalled drive.

The Hounds scored quick and often in the first quarter opening up a 20-point lead with less than five minutes gone in the first quarter. Fort Madison took the opening kickoff from the 34-yard line in 10 plays before Gully slashed his way in from 13 yards after quarterback Len-non Barker found his favorite target, Shance Redd-Donald, on a 16-yard hookup to set up the scoring run.

The Hounds then forced a quick four and out and started their second drive on a poor punt to the Chiefs' 38. Barker and Lorenzo Riles II couldn't hook up on 1st and 10, but Gully got seven yards on the next snap, before Barker found Redd-Donald open down the right side for a 31-yard touchdown. The Chiefs couldn't

Lee County on SBA list for drought loans

LEE COUNTY - Small nonfarm businesses in fifteen Iowa counties and three neighboring Missouri counties are now eligible to apply for low-interest federal disaster loans from the U.S. Small Business Administration. These loans offset economic losses because of reduced revenues caused by the drought in the following primary counties that began Aug. 1, 2017, announced Director Tanya N. Garfield of SBA's Disaster Field Operations Center-West.

Primary Iowa counties: Davis, Henry, Keokuk and Van Buren.

Neighboring Missouri counties: Clark, Schuyler and Scotland.

“SBA eligibility covers both the economic impacts on businesses dependent on farmers and ranchers that have suffered agricultural production losses caused by the disaster and businesses directly impacted by the disaster,” Garfield said.

Small nonfarm businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture and most private nonprofit organizations of any size may qualify for Economic Injury Disaster Loans of up to $2 million to help meet financial obligations and operating expenses which could have been met had the disaster not occurred.

“Eligibility for these loans is based on the financial impact of the disaster only and not on any actual property damage. These loans have an interest rate of

Text-to-911 is a state-wide system that allows cell phone users to send text messages to 911 in an emergency. Right now, 94 of Iowa’s 113 emergency call centers are able to accept text messages from at least one cell phone carrier. The remaining call centers are expected to have the capability by the end of the year.

8th graders end season with loss

FORT MADISON - The Fort Madison 8th grade football team ended the season in a rain-shortened game Tuesday at Keokuk.

The Chiefs scored on the final play of the first half to take a 16-12 lead and the game was called before the 2nd half could resume due to inclement weather. Jakob McGowan scored both the FMHS touchdowns on long runs. It was the final game of the season for the eighth graders.

Last Tuesday, the Hounds fell 38-16 at Washington.

Landes Williams was the leading rusher for Fort Madison with 56 yds. Jakob McGowan had 37 yards and a score and Tate Johnson had 29 yards including a two-point conversion. Williams also led Fort Madison through the air going 4 of 6 for 15 yards and two-point conversion to Johnson. Johnson caught three balls for nine yards. Austin Ensminger had one catch for six yards. Ensminger, Anthony Tate, Johnson and Williams shared the load on defense.

Fort Madison wrapped up the season 2-4 on the year.
Texting 911 to be statewide service

Gov. Reynolds said, “Iowans are able to send a text to 911 when a voice call would put them in danger or when a medical condition makes it impossible for them to speak.”

“For those unable to make a call to 911, the ability to send a text in emergency or life-threatening situations is invaluable,” Lt. Gov. Gregg said.

Text-to-911 is a nationwide initiative. The Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management (HSEMID) oversees Iowa’s 911 program and has worked with local public safety agencies and wireless carriers to build a statewide network and make Text-to-911 technology possible.

“Most Iowans use smart phones and other communication devices that offer texting capabilities,” HSEMID Director Mark Schouten said. “That’s why we must be able to utilize this technology to increase the safety of our citizens.”

In some areas of the state, not all cell service carriers have the necessary technology in place to send texts to the 911 call centers that are capable of accepting them. The providers are working to make this service available as soon as possible.

Residents in counties currently accepting texts to 911 can check with their carrier to find out about availability in their area. Six wireless carriers currently, or will in the near future, provide their customers with the ability to text 911. The carriers are: AT&T, iWireless, Sprint, T-Mobile, U.S. Cellular, and Verizon.

get anything going on their next possession and were forced to punt on 4th and 10 from the 20. Redd-Donald took the kick at the Hounds’ 34-yard line and rushed up the right side all the way back to the Fort Madison 20. Gully took the next handoff on 1st and 10 to the endzone and the Bloodhounds were up 20-0.

After the kickoff, the Bloodhounds’ defense stepped up with a sack and a tackle for a loss leaving the Chiefs facing 3rd and 22. An incomplete pass forced a punt that gave the Hounds the ball at the Keokuk 35. A holding penalty at 1st and 10 made it 1st and 20. Gully rushed for four and then Barker and Redd-Donald hooked up on a 40-yard pass play to the Chief’s five-yard line. The Hounds tried a quick pass to Riles II, but he was tackled for a loss on the 10. Barker scrambled on 2nd and goal to his right and found Logan Allen in the back of the endzone for a Hounds score.

The song remained the same through the first quarter as the Hounds forced Keokuk into another quick four and out, but the Chiefs punt pinned Fort Madison at their own 5. Shiffman called on Gully on the first play and broke for a 39-yard scamper to the 44. After a penalty and a couple runs for no gain, Gully stretched a run left and gained another 20 yards. Barker found Quentin Estrada for a 13-yard pass and then hit Allen again for a five-yard gain before Gully got his third touch-down just minutes into the second quarter.

Keokuk got a first down on their next possession but turned the ball back over to Fort Madison at their 47 when freshman Corey Skinner threw incomplete on 4th and 5. Shiffman started mixing in Shemmour ReDD-Donald in the backfield and he carried twice for 18 yards, but the second carry was nullified on a holding penalty. The Hounds got the ball to the 24, but turned it over on downs.

The Chiefs threw on first down and Nick Carter picked off Skinner down the right side and the Hounds were back in business. But the Chiefs defense had a rare hold forcing Barker to punt. The Chiefs had two in-completions and a 5-yard sack by Alec Craft forced a punt. The Hounds scored on a seven yard run by Gully on the sixth play of the drive.

The Chiefs would bring the kickoff back to the 25. Two big receptions, one by Keokuk’s Matt Wyatt for 19 yards and then a 36-yard strike to Anthony Potratz, cut the Fort Madison lead to 41-8. Potratz escaped a tackle after about 8 yards and then tight-roped the sidelines before outracing Shance Redd-Donald to the pylon on the last play of the half.

Shiffman played his starters for just under a full period in the second half, giving way to some back up players, but not before Gully punched in another score from one-yard out to make it 48-8.

Keokuk was able to get some points on the board with the Hounds second team getting some playing time, but the game was firmly in hand.

Barker finished the game 13 of 23 for 145 yards, two TDs, and no interceptions. He now has thrown for 1190 yards and 12 touchdowns on the season, 48-24. Below, senior Alex Gully breaks free for just some of the 354 yards he had on the ground during the game.

Sheymour Redd-Donald finds some running room in Friday’s game at Keokuk. Fort Madison downed Keokuk for the first time since the 2010-11 season. Gully said he was motivated to get that back for us,” he said after the game. “I was seeing huge holes even when I didn’t see holes I wanted to make plays.”

The Hounds take on a Washington team that knocked off Oskaloosa 51-42 on Friday. Gully said that will be a test but he’s ready for it.

“'What if...but you can’t live on 'what if'...but you can’t live on 'what if'” Shiffman said at 4-4, his Hounds haven’t met their goals and have a big game in front of them next week.

“It’s a winning season if we win,” he said. “4-5 is not our goal was. This is our superbowl next Friday and we want to come out 5-4 and I want to reach those goals. I want this team to reach their goals.”
