Parent asks for school official’s firing

District says video of incident was recycled prior to viewing

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG

FORT MADISON - A parent of a former Fort Madison school district student is asking for the removal of an administrator who allegedly left a bruise on his daughter’s arm because she didn’t say “Good Morning” to him.

The incident occurred in September, and according to Brian Wright, his child was left with bruising after an administrator grabbed a student, isn’t that the first thing they should have done?”

Wright said if he informed the school of the incident the next day, he doesn’t understand why video wasn’t pulled by the school to help with remediating the case.

“We asked them to view the footage and see that he grabbed her. They said it recycles every two weeks and apparently the video wasn’t there. I would think it should recycle, but we brought it to their attention when we complained about the incident the next day. If they knew that complaint was there, they should have gone to the video to see the case. If a complaint is there about an administrator grabbing a student, isn’t that the first thing they should have done?”

Wright said he’s consulted with Keokuk attorney Curtis Dial, but has not retained his services yet.

He also said during meetings with Superintendent Erin Slater and the administrator, the administrator admitted to remembering telling the student she didn’t say good morning, but didn’t remember any physical contact.

Early primary voting in play until June 4

Kurtz, Morawitz face off in House race; Harlow, Haynes vye for Democrat’s slot in supervisor election

FORT MADISON - You can still vote in person at the Lee County Auditor’s Office, 933 Avenue H, Fort Madison from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm and at the South Lee Courthouse, 25 N. 7th Street, Keokuk from 8:30 am to noon and 1 pm to 4:30 pm. Residents can vote until 5 pm on June 4th. These locations will also be open 9 am to 5 pm on Saturday, June 2nd.

Rich Harlow of Montrose and Larry Haynes of rural Donnellson, both Democrats, are facing off in the primary for the right to face James Steffen, who is the only Republican on the primary ballot for the District 3 Lee County Supervisor race.

Bob Morawitz and Jeff Kurtz, both Fort Madison democrats will be squaring off in the primary for the Iowa House 83 District seat being vacated with the retirement of State Rep. Jerry Kearns of Keokuk. The winner will face Jeffrey Reichman, the only Republican on the primary ballot.

In District 84, Martin Amos, Trevor Lynn, Sheila Matheney and Joe Mitchell, all Republicans will vye for a chance to face Jason Moats, the only Democrat on the primary ballot for that Iowa House seat. That district does cover part of north and western Lee County.

Rich Larkin is running unopposed for the district 2 supervisors seat.

The governor’s face features a full ballot of five democrats and two libertarians to face Kim Reynolds in the general election. A sixth Democrat, Nate Boulton has suspended his campaign after word of misconduct surfaced last week.

Bloodhounds drop two at Washington

BY PCC STAFF

WASHINGTON - The Fort Madison Bloodhounds dropped two games to Washington Friday night 1-7, 8-13. In the opener, sophomore Brandon Reichelt spotted the Demons three runs in the bottom of the first inning, but shut Washington down in the second and third.

Fort Madison got on the board in the top of the fourth when junior Lennon Barker singled in junior Jordyn Gerdes for second for a 3-1 deficit. Reichelt gave up another run in the bottom of the fourth and was pulled in favor of Barker who came in and gave up two more runs in the fourth for a 6-1 Washington lead. The Demons would put up another run in the bottom of the sixth for the win. Reichelt suffered the loss and the Hounds got other hits from Gerdes, a double, and junior Dayne Cordray and sophomore Caleb Wood.

In the second game, sophomore Barker took the loss going four innings giving up 10 runs on six hits and striking out six against three walks. Eighth grader Landon Williams came in in relief giving up three runs on four hits and two walks. Wood went 3-for-4 in the game with a double and two RBIs. Cordray and Reichelt each had two hits with Reichelt getting a double and scoring two runs. Gerdes also had a double for the Hounds.

FMHS falls to 0-3 on the year and plays host to a Mt. Pleasant in a double header Thursday afternoon. On the year Cordray, Wood and Reichelt are all hitting .400 going 4-10 at the plate. Reichelt has the lone FMHS homer as well two doubles and a single on the season. He also has three RBI and has struck out three times. Wood has a double, but has struck out six times in his 10 plate appearances.

HTC girls take 4-game win streak into districts

BY PCC STAFF

FORT MADISON - Holy Trinity wrapped up its regular girls soccer season with a 9-2 win over Mid-Prairie Wellman in a sweetering game Thursday night on the road.

Senior Maya Rashid pulled a hat trick in the 92-degree weather, for the Crusaders with three goals on three shots on goal and added an assist. Junior Taylor Boeding had two goals and Elle Rashid, Taylor Crabtree, Claire Potthi- aks and Katie Scoville all added goals for HTC.

Sam Pothitakis has four saves on the night and head coach Mike Sheerin said the two goals were with Pothitakis the lone defender on the eight. "Maya Rashid dominated midfield play with Elyse Pothitakis whilst Malibu Mohrfield did some dizzying dribbles from the back and through crowds of players. Emily (the Machine) Box made countless runs from the backline notching up three shots on goal five shots total," Sheerin said. "She is worth the watch," he said of Box, "especially watching this girl put boys to shame with her 30-40 yard bul- let train throws. Her passing game has really improved." Sheerin said the girls continue to show class on the field even in the face of most losses against 3A schools or larger.

"Our girls are true soldiers of the sport and exhibit superb sportsmanship on and off the pitch with their rivals. We finished season play losing only to Notre Dame, BHS and five 3A or larger schools. Not a bad season for this little rag tag team. Coach Tom Gendron and I couldn't ask for more," he said.

HTC, who won their last four games and five of the last six, started district play Tuesday at home against Columb- us at 6 p.m.

HTC baseball starts season 1-3

BY PCC STAFF

FORT MADISON - It’s another very young team for head coach Albert Schin- stock’s Holy Trinity Catholic baseball squad.

Five freshman and two sophomores help anchor a team that includes two juniors and two seniors, and the team is off to 1-3 start to the season in some pretty hot temps.

On Friday, the Crusaders dropped a 5-2 contest to Mediapolis at South Park be- hind a 2-0 performance from freshman Jason Thurman, who plated in the mound double Huston tournament earlier that day in Waterloo and also threw 52/3 innings that night in relief of freshman Cole Thornton. Thurman gave up one run on five hits against two strikeouts. Thornton was pulled after an inning and an out with the Bulldogs up 4-1.

Sophomore Quentin Schneider, junior Kyle Bredemeyer, freshmen Kadin Medlin and Vasin Thurman, senior Zander Schweiss, and junior Adam Rauenbuehler each had hits for Holy Trinity in the contest. "We played a tough game tonight against Mediapolis, however, we just couldn’t seem to get the hits when we needed them. We left a lot of runners stranded on the bases," Schinstock said.

"Jason Thurman did a great job coming in to pitch in relief. He pitched 5 2/3 solid innings and did a great job keeping the hitters off-balance, especially considering that he played two tennis matches in the state tournament this morning.

On Thursday, HTC got a 5-2 win over Danville on the road. Medlin spotted the Bears three runs in the bottom of the second and gave way to sophomore Reed Feheke who came in and struck out nine against one hit to shut down the Bear defense.

HTC went to work in the latter innings after being held scoreless through four, putting up five runs total in the last three innings including a 3-run 6th to put the game away. Feheke went 2-4 with a double RBI and a run scored for 3 with a double, an RBI and a run scored. HTC also got hits from Bredemeyer, Rauenbuehler and Schweiss in the win. Raunbuehler swapped three bases in the game.

On the year, Schneider leads the Crusaders at the plate hitting a .429 clip with seven plate appearances and three hits. Feheke leads the team on the mound with a 1-0 record including 13 strikeouts in just 6 2/3 innings of work and clean 1.05 ERA. He has yet to give up a walk on the year. Jason Thurman has 10 1/3 innings of work, a 3.39 ERA and five strikeouts, with no decisions.

The Crusaders started the season with back to back losses to Cardinal of Eldon and Central Lee. They take on Lone Tree tonight on the road.

HTC junior high wins five of six

BY PCC STAFF

MEDIAPOLIS - The Holy Trinity Junior High girls softball team has started the season 1-3 with its only loss coming at the hands of Danville on Thursday.

Friday night the Crusad- ers swept a double header at Mediapolis with Anna Sobczak and Mary Hellige getting the wins for HTC. In the first game, the Crusaders won 19-11 with Sobczak giving up just one run in two innings of work. Leading HTC from the plate were Brooke Mueller, Jenna DiPrimia and Breanna Peterson who all went 2 for 2. Hellige was 1 for 1 with a triple, while Randolph was 1-2 and Kelli Mierietto went 1-3.

HTC won the second game 15-4. Hellige struck out two in the win and went 3 for 3 from the plate. Alexa Dingman was 2-2, Raquel Schneider was 2-3, Paige Wasielewski went 1-2, Mueller was 1-3 and Sobczak 1-4.

On Thursday’s matchup with Danville, HTC lost the first game 12-1. Rachel Menke and Sobczak split mound duties. Wasielewski and Sobczak had base- hits and Laura Mehmet scored a run. In game two, Hellige pitched a six-in- ning complete game shut- out and stuck out four in a 3-0 win. Kayla Box had two hits, while Wasielewski, Schneider, and Mueller all had a hit. Wasielewski, Box and Mehmet scored the HTC runs.

On Tuesday, May 22, Holy Trinity took two games from Central Lee. Menke was the winning pitcher in a 1-2 first game, striking out three batters. Wasielewski was 3-3 at the plate with three runs scored.

HTC won the second game 8-5, behind Helligi’s six innings and six strike- outs. Schneider scored a run and had a hit. Sobczak had two hits and scored a run. Box scored two runs and Mueller had two hits. Wasielewski had two hits and scored a run, while Dingman had a hit and a run, and Menke had a hit. HTC plays Thursday, May 31 at New London and returns home Friday, June 1st vs Cardinal of Eldon. All games are double-headers with 5:30 p.m. start times.

Great Opportunity for Part-Time or Second Income

Business in Fort Madison is looking for motivated individuals who would like to work part-time hours in a private contractor role, providing janitorial and cleaning services for a building of approximately 15,000 square feet. This is a perfect opportunity for someone who wants to earn some extra income or work a second part-time job.

The work usually requires three to four hours per day/week and will generally be performed in the morning or evening, before or after business hours. All equipment and supplies will be furnished by the company.

Applicants must be hard-working, completely honest, insured, bondable, and must be able to pass a thorough background test. Payment for this work is negotiable.

Applicants interested in this opportunity to provide janitorial services must submit a letter of interest, a work history that details related experience and three professional references no later than May 31st. Start date is April 1st.

Applications can be picked up by contacting Janitorial/Cleaning Services, P.O. Box 366, Fort Madison, IA 52627.

Suitable applicants will be contacted and asked to inspect the property and submit a quote/price for the work.
Polls open from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. on election day

The other Democrats include Cathy Glasson, Fred Hubbell, Andrea McGuire, John Norris and Ross Williams. Libertarians on the ballot include Marco Battaglia and Jake Porter.

Diedre DeJear and Jim Mowrer are battling to take on Paul Pate in the general election for Secretary of State, and Secretary of Agriculture has five republicans including Ray Gaesser, Chad Ingels, Craig Lang, Mike Naig, and Dan Zumbach on the ballot to challenge democrat Tim Gannon in the general.

On Election Day, you must go to your regular voting site. Polls are open 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. Voters will be asked to show their ID before voting. This can be an Iowa driver’s license, a non-operator’s ID, passport, military ID, veteran’s ID or voter ID card provided by the State.

If you have moved within the County and have not changed your address with the Auditor’s Office, you must show proof of identity and residency on the polls. Unregistered voters can still register and vote, but must provide proof of identity and residency.

For additional information, contact the Auditor’s Office at 319-372-3705.

When contacted Tuesday afternoon for comment, Slater said she wasn’t able to comment on the incident because the district can’t comment on personnel issues.

Wright also contends that the administrator brought his student into the office without any other adults and asked her, “If everything was ok”.

“She said she was fine, but she just wanted to get out of there. She was scared,” he said. “You would think they would bring in a parent. There was no one else in there except her and (the administrator). And, unless this is a routine thing, he should remember. Thankfully my child took a picture of the bruise that day. She showed it to her mom and me and we immediately moved forward with it.”

Wright said about four weeks ago he went to the district’s resource officer and indicated he wanted to press charges. At that point the officer told Wright he hadn’t been asked to conduct an investigation, but would start depositions.

“We weren’t going to let this go,” Wright said. Lee County Attorney Ross Braden said there isn’t enough evidence for a criminal charge because there is no video evidence. Wright said he is considering a civil suit against the school district.

“Procedurally it was not handled properly by the district. They brought her in by herself and she felt intimidated by it. Every other incident an SRO is usually brought in. You would think the SRO would be brought in. I fault the school in general for not doing more. The truth will come out and we know what the truth is. We know our daughter was assaulted.”

Great River Regional Waste Authority now has a new sharps disposal bin at the Fort Madison facility. Making disposal easy for our customers and allowing safer handling for our employees. A similar sharps disposal bin will soon be available at our Keokuk Transfer Station.

The health and safety of our staff and our community members is of the upmost importance and we urge our residents to use regulated containers specifically made for sharps. Empty Sharps containers can be obtained in the at the both the Fort Madison and Keokuk facilities.

For the safety of everyone involved, please do not place plastic jugs or bottles containing sharps in your recycling tote or in any non-designated bin at our drop off sites.
