Supervisors to vote on employee premium bump

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCG EDITOR

MONTROSE - Lee County Supervisors will vote on increasing health insurance premiums in the county’s self-funded insurance program at Tuesday’s regular meeting.

County employees will be looking at $50 increases in both single and family premium plans, unless the employees participate in the county’s wellness program. For employees who sign up for the wellness program administered by Health Solutions, LLC and complete a physical, an online health assessment, and a 30-minute consultation determining their risk level, the $50 increase will be waived and current insurance rates will apply.

The current structure, which expires on June 30, has county employees paying $20 per month for a single policy and $90 for a family. Deductibles on those plans are $750 per person and $1,500 for families.

The Lee County Sheriff’s department rates are not exposed to the increase due to union negotiations and that rate is locked in at the $20 for single and $90 for family. Employees of the Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP) are also locked by union contract at a percentage, which in 2019 will amount to $19.60 for a single and $113.05 per month.

The county’s portion of regular employees’ insurance premiums is $960 for single coverage and $1,520 for a family with employees paying the $20/$90 premiums.

The health insurance premiums have been on the budget chopping block in Lee County budget strategy sessions for the past several years. Supervisor Matt Pflug has repeatedly hinted that at some point this board or future boards were going to have to raise the employee contributions.

At a meeting in April the board approved moving the county’s part of the self-insurance plan deductibles from $2,250 to $5,000, increasing the county’s share of the health insurance premiums.

Artsy daughter making impact on local art scene

We moved Annie, along with her brother, to Mt. Pleasant from Colorado, completely against their will when they were teenagers. They thought we, the parents, had lost our marbles. They would attend a Christian school rather than public. As native born Coloradans, “What was there to do in Iowa?” they asked. So, being the good parents, we bribed them. For Annie, she could have a futon bed. For our son, I would install the NFL channel so he could watch the Denver Broncos.

It worked. They now thank us for their Christian School education. Annie met Mrs. Peck, the Christian School art teacher and fell in love with art. She received an art scholarship from Wisconsin Lutheran College in Milwaukee and off she went. She hasn’t looked back.

Except when it was to return to Mt. Pleasant 16 years later, with her husband, Nils, and two sons, Thorsen and Conan. The two boys, ages four and five, would be enrolled in, yep, the Christian School. Nils had secured employment as a supervisor with Great Prairie AEA. In Annie’s words, “Mt. Pleasant is the town God chose for me twice. I think I got the message.”

As Annie’s father, I couldn’t be more pleased. I have both my kids and their kids in Mt. Pleasant to spoil. And Annie, fresh from art-smart Milwaukee, has sort of taken Mt. Pleasant by storm. (Of course, you realize,
Marilyn "Darlene" Niggemeyer, 75, of Ft. Madison, passed away at 4:00 AM on Sunday, June 10, 2018 at the West Point Care Center.

She was born on May 8, 1943 in Ft. Madison to Glenn and Mary Mehmert Moothart. On October 8, 1966 she married David Lair and they later divorced. On May 8, 1993 she married Robert Niggemeyer in Ft. Madison. Darlene worked at the Sheaffer Pen Company and retired after forty-two years of service. She was a member of Sacred Heart Church, CLA, the Moose Lodge and the Eagles Lodge. Darlene was on a bowling league for many years. She enjoyed dancing, attending craft and antique car shows with her husband. She also enjoyed cooking, baking and reading.

Survivors include her husband, Robert Niggemeyer of the West Point; one niece, Michelle Webb of Chandler, AZ; one nephew, Michael (Kathy) Moothart of Mt. Pleasant and three great nephews, Marcus, Matthew and Mitchell Moothart of Mt. Pleasant. She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother David.

The funeral mass will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, June 12, 2018 at Sacred Heart Church with Rev. Mark P. Spring officiating. A rosary will be recited at 9:30 AM and the family will meet with friends from 10 AM until the time of the service at 11 AM all at the church. Burial will follow in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

A memorial has been established for Holy Family Parish and online condolences may be left at the King-Lynk Funeral Home & Crematory website: www.kinglynk.com. King-Lynk Funeral Home & Crematory is assisting the family with the arrangements.

Shutterbugs on display at FMAAA in June

FORT MADISON - The Summer at FMAAA gallery always is ushered in with a flash with the Annual Photography Exhibition. This year features Martha Milligan and Ann Larsen of Montrose, Chris Swed of Ft. Madison, and Kyle Blankenship of Sioux City. Connections Bank is the sponsor for the exhibition. Lunch-a-rt program will occur on June 29th at noon. The photography annual is a fan favorite due to it’s group show format. With four artists submitting 8-12 pieces of their style, then merging them together for a snapping mosaic of documentation. The show is really a home run when the photographers have differing styles in subject matter. And in the case of this year’s edition, get ready for a dinger! Martha Milligan of Montrose will carry a camera with her at all times. She has been taking photos just shy of 20 years, remembering the days of Kodak glory. She relies on her PentaxK digital for capturing the moment. She has been shooting weddings for the last 6 years, looking to capture “just the right moment” to document the event. She utilizes photography for stress relief from mandatory OT at her Pinnacle workplace, as advent of Hurricane season always increases orders.

Ann Larsen was born in Ft. Madison but now resides along the Mighty Mississippi in Montrose. Her magnificient view provides daily access to beautiful sunrises and amazing wildlife of all kinds. Ann comments, “I consider myself a novice of Photography with a never ending desire to continue to learn more, see more, and capture more. After I realized the camera actually fits my hand like a glove and it stole my heart, it is basically with me at all times.” Her camera of choice is a Canon EOS 7D Mark 11 with a telephoto lens she calls “My Magic Lens”. She credits her mentors: Joe Morgan&Jay Scott of Mississippi Valley Photography in Keokuk and Don Weiss of Burlington. “I am forever grateful for that opportunity. I hope my photos in some small way will inspire you to stop and see the beauty around us and to follow your heart like my teachers have inspired me. As Ansel Adams proclaimed, “Sometimes I arrive just when God’s ready to have someone click the shutter”.

Chris Swed relates,” I moved to Ft. Madison just over a year ago and immediately fell in love with the town. My wife and I run the Fox Theatre and also started a coffee roasting company..."

Great River Regional Waste Authority now has a new sharps disposal bin at the Fort Madison facility. Making disposal easy for our customers and allowing safer handling for our employees. A similar sharps disposal bin will soon be available at our Keokuk Transfer Station. The health and safety of our staff and our community members is of the utmost importance and we urge our residents to use regulated containers specifically made for sharps. Empty Sharps containers can be obtained at the Mt. Pleasant and Mt. Pleasant American Legion facilities.

Bloodhounds drop two in Quad Cities

BY PCC STAFF

DAVENPORT - Fort Madison lost two games on Saturday as part of a day trip to an invitational at Davenport West.

The first game of the day, the Hounds went up against 3-11 Davenport North, who faces some stiff competition out of the Quad Cities and plays all freshmen and sophomores.

The Hounds won home team designation in both Saturday games and, with Cassie Powers pitching, the Hounds jumped out to a 1-0 lead on a two-out RBI single by senior Kamryn Bailey, driving in Sadie Smithburg who singled with one-out and advanced to second on a passed ball.

Neither team put up any runs in the second, but North’s Hannah Healey reached on an error to lead off the top of the third. Ivy Wilmington sacrificed Healey to second and Jordan Burch drove her in on a fielder’s choice out at first. Powers got the next hitter to ground out to end the inning.

FMHS responded in the bottom of the inning with one-out and advanced to second on a passed ball. Powers got the next hitter to ground out to end the inning.

In the second game, Muscatine’s Katie Bierman threw a five-hit 9-0 shutout over the Hounds. Smithburg had two hits for the Hounds. Williams, Bailey, and Parsons had the other hits for Fort Madison. Katelyn Dennis went the distance for the Hounds in the loss. She gave up nine runs on 12 hits and three strikeouts.

In the bottom of the sixth Teryn Parsons reached on an error at second. Logan Johnson popped out to second. Vanessa Golowach singled moving Parsons to third, but Allison Helmick struck out for the second out. Smithburg drew a walk to put the game-winning run at a single. Powers got the next hitter to ground back to her for an out, but Coin moved to second. Morgan Newmeyer drew a walk and Rileigh Antle singled to score Coin. Newmeyer and Antle would both come around to score.

In the second game, Muscatine’s Kate- lyn Bierman threw a five-hit 9-0 shutout over the Hounds. Smithburg had two hits for the Hounds. Williams, Bailey, and Parsons had the other hits for Fort Madison. Katelyn Dennis went the distance for the Hounds in the loss. She gave up nine runs on 12 hits and three strikeouts.

From every imaginable kind of “food-on-a-stick”, zany events in Pioneer Hall such as the “cow chip throwing contest”, 4-H exhibits, chainsaw artists, the butter cow, livestock shows, the big boar jump, and scored to give the Hounds a 2-1 lead. Powers also grounded out to short to end the inning.

North’s Molly Freeman and Powers both went unscathed in the fourth and fifth, but Davenport put up a three spot in the top of the 6th. North’s Kyleigh Coin opened the top of the inning with a single. Powers got the next hitter to ground back to her for an out, but Coin moved to second. Morgan Newmeyer drew a walk and Rileigh Antle singled to score Coin. Newmeyer and Antle would both come around to score.
