City gives abatement for Scotts incentive

Tax break fulfills city’s match requirement in state incentive

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG

FORT MADISON - A unanimous vote of the Fort Madison City Council sealed the deal on an incentive package for Scotts Miracle Gro’s facility on the city’s west side.

The city council voted 6-0 to approve a rebate of three years on the city’s portion of the property tax.

Varley said the city decided to go with the tax abatement to help meet the city’s responsibility of an incentive package offered to the company.

The addition is expected to bring in at least 40 full time positions as well as some possible expanded seasonal positions.

On May 19, the Iowa Economic Development Authority, awarded Scotts $91,612 in direct financial assistance and tax benefits from the state’s High Quality Jobs program to help with the company’s $2.6 million capital investment. The package required the city to match the $91,612 and Varley said the abatement was an easier path to meet the requirements.

“We expect that to bring in about $98,000 which would meet our obligation and go a little above and beyond. That way we wouldn’t have to go through the expense and time of putting together a tax increment finance district,” he said.

“It’s a real straightforward deal and we’re excited about and the state is, too. It should be a real good addition to the community.”

NEW LONDON - The Holy Trinity Crusaders continue to get great pitching, but couldn’t get going at the plate in a 3-0 loss to 9th-ranked New London Tuesday night on the road.

Freshman Kadin Medland went three innings of scoreless baseball and gave up the first run unearned on a third-strike passed ball that scored the Tigers’ Mason Porter with two outs in the bottom of the fourth.

Medland had given up a walk to Porter to open the inning, and then back-to-back singles to Darius Whaley and Keonta Luckett loaded the bases with just one out. Shae Summerfield popped into an infield fly at short and Javis Kriger fanned on three pitches which would have ended the inning, but the ball got past HTC catcher Collin Thornton allowing Porter to score from third.

By Chuck Vandenberg
POC Staff

Holy Trinity made it interesting in the top of the seventh when Thornton led off with a single to left, but Bredemeyer hit into a double play to third to wipe the bases clean and Cole Thornton fanned to end the game.

“Our pitchers did a really good job tonight holding the #9 ranked Tigers to only 3 runs and 6 hits on the night, however we just couldn’t get enough hits tonight,” Schinstock said. “If you don’t hit, you don’t score runs.”

Medland went three innings giving up just one hit and no runs. Hannum pitched two innings surrendering three runs - none earned on five hits and two strikeouts. Thurman came on in the bottom of the sixth with a man on and one out and cleaned things up without allowing a hit.

Fehseke and Collin Thornton had the only hits for the Crusaders who left six runners on base in the game. Noel went the distance for the Tigers striking out four and walking two in the shutout.

Holy Trinity has won two of their last three and travels to Louisa-Muscatine tonight, before hosting Notre Dame on Thursday at South Park.

After 10 years, City needs extension on Amtrak grants

The company plans to add a 4,400 square foot building to relocate and expand existing operations. "Scott's Miracle-Gro Company (SMG) manufactures, markets and sells brand-ed products for lawn and garden care, and indoor and hydroponic gardening. In an unrelated issue, the council heard that the city will have to apply for an extension for a state transportation grant for the Amtrak depot.

"We're going to make history because we'll be the first group in the state to ask the state to approve an extension of the grant received for the Amtrak depot because it's coming up on the 10-year anniversary and the 10-year rule," Varley said tongue in cheek.. "If you don't ask the state to approve an extension for a state transportation grant for the Amtrak depot.

The city has been working with the state and they don't see any difficulty getting it approved. "They just made a comment that they've never had to pull out the forms to do this before. We have to renew it every six months any-way, but this is the first time they've had to do the 10-year rule. And that's what we're up against now," Varley said.

"I think the state recognizes that the city has been diligently moving toward this project and it's circumstances beyond our control, so I don't envision an issue with it," he said.

In other action, the council:

• voted 6-0 to award a construction contract to Norris Asphalt Paving Co., of Ottumwa to complete a Rodeo Park Trail extension. The cost of the proj-ect is $74,629 with 25% coming from the city and the rest through a state TAP grant. The project will begin after the Tri State Rodeo has concluded in September and should last about three weeks.

• voted 6-0 to adopt a resolution setting solid waste fees for individuals living outside the city limits but within a quarter-mile, using the new contain-ers. Those residents will pay $17.50 per 65-gallon cart and $19.50 per 90-gallon cart. Those residents within the quar-ter-mile may use the city's solid waste collection services at the Public Works director's discretion.

• voted 6-0 to file an application for a state recreational grant to help with costs of the PORs Connecting Fort Madison! Phase III.

• voted 6-0 to reappoint Matt Mor-ison to the city's revolving fund loan committee, and Rebecca Bowker and Dave Soppe to the Fort Madison Hous-ing Authority.

State, county fireworks season runs through July 8

I also have one in West Burlington right across from Wal-Mart in Dollar General."

Crews were on hand getting the sides of the tent down around the in-terior fencing Wednesday afternoon as stormy skies descended on the town. The tent was still empty of fireworks, but signs were up and bunting was ready to be wrapped around the tent. Duckstein is hoping for brisk sales in her first year with the company. "I'm hoping this will be as big of a year as last year from what they've told us," she said. "The name is out there, so we're hoping for a very good year. We're local. They can walk here. We're right by the store and we take cash or cred-it cards on site."

Duckstein said due to the long hours she is still looking for some hourly help. She said the outlet will have specials on a daily basis including sev-eral buy 1 get 3 free ta-bles. She said those items regularly sell quickly, but Bellino tracks sales inventory on an ongoing basis so supplies are re-plenished automatically.

"We'll have plenty of fireworks on hand throughout the two weeks of operation," she said. "The most important thing is that no one gets hurt and everyone has a safe holiday."

She said there are also Bellino tents at the Har-dee's Westway dealership and the old Hy-Vee loca-tion in Burlington. More information can be found at the Bellino Fireworks website at www.bellino-fireworks.com.

According to state and county codes, fireworks cannot be sold past July 8. Temporary or tent structures could begin selling on June 13. Tents and temporary structure sales began June 13, with permanent structures able to sell in the state starting June 1. All sales end July 8.

Both state and county codes dictate that fire-works can be used on private property from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. June 1 through July 8 and again from Dec. 10 through Jan. 3.

According to Lee County code 5-9-9:

(a) A person may use or explode Consumer Fire-works during the dates of June 1 through July 8 and December 10 through January 3 of each year, all dates inclusive, so long as the use of Consumer Fireworks is not prohib-ited pursuant to Section 5-9-3(c).

(b) A person shall not use or explode Consumer Fireworks at times other than between the hours specified:

(1) Between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 p.m. on July 4 and the Saturdays and Sundays immediately preceding and following July 4.

(2) Between the hours of 9:00 a.m. on Decem-ber 31 and 12:30 a.m. on the immediately follow-ing day.

(3) Between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 p.m. on the Saturdays and Sundays immediately preceding and following December 31.
