IOWA STATE FAIR
TUESDAY, AUGUST 14, 2018

Nothing compares to the Iowa State Fair!

After you’ve spent a day with us at the Fair, you will fully understand that “Nothing Compares”. From every imaginable kind of “food-on-a-stick”, zany events in Pioneer Hall such as the “cow chip throwing contest”, 4-H exhibits, chainsaw artists, the butter cow, livestock shows, the big boar winner, photography exhibits, the Bill Riley Talent Sprouts, hundreds of vendor exhibits, free daily musical entertainment, and more, you will find that nothing truly compares to the great Iowa State Fair!

Internationally acclaimed, the Iowa State Fair is the single largest event in the state of Iowa and one of the oldest and largest agricultural and industrial expositions in the country. Annually attracting more than a million people from all over the world, the Iowa State Fair in Des Moines is Iowa’s great celebration, a salute to the state’s best in agriculture, industry, entertainment and achievement. It is the true heartbeat of the Midwest, unequalled and unduplicated!

West Point - A six-run fourth inning that started with a hit-batman and two errors gave the Fort Madison Bloodhounds what they needed to down Holy Trinity 6-1 on Wednesday at South Park.

Junior Jordyn Gerdes took a pitch off his back to start the top of the fourth. Brandon Reichelt fanned, but HTC’s Kaden Medland allowed Jace Burgher and Lennon Williams and move Cordray to third. The Hound bats putting little offense going in the bottom half of the seventh inning was the difference coach Ken Steeples said perfectly, “FMHS head coach Jason Thurman. Thurman then quieted the kids just executed it.”

The Hounds score six in fourth inning to down HTC.

FORT MADISON - The Fort Madison Bloodhounds dropped a pair of games to Fairfield at home Monday night on senior night.

Senior Tony Fortado took the loss in a 20-0 five-inning first game for Fort Madison going two innings and giving up 12 runs, seven earned on eight hits. The Trojans put up a 11 runs in a big third inning highlighted by junior Tristan Waugh's grand slam with no outs in the top half.

Bloodhound pitchers allowed 10 hitters to reach base consecutively in the inning and all scored before recording an out. Jason Thurman and Hannum would score again in the inning on a ground out by Cade Lisk before Jackson Wheaton fanned to end the inning. Eighth grader Landes Williams had the only hit for the Bloodhounds, a two-out single up the middle in the bottom of the second inning.

Caleb Parson worked at third of an inning and Gaven Wiseman worked 1 2/3 of an inning in the loss.

The Bloodhounds started the night cap with a single by Dayne Cordray. Cordray was moved to second on sacrifice by Parker Denning and then scored on Jordan Gerdes’ RBI single to right. Brandon Fehseke and Jason Thurman two RBI double to right center. Thurman would draw walks to load the bases with two outs before Collin Thornton and Vason Wiseman hit into a fielder's choice at second, before Vason Thurman fanned to end the threat.

Fairfield got back-to-back singles in the next two at bats for another run and then Lisk homered to right. Wheaton grounded out one, walking three and giving up three runs all earned.

The Trojans then got another big inning with eight runs in the top of the second. Cordray got Cade Lisk to ground out to first to start the inning, but then walked the next two followed by a hit batsman to load the bases. Kosta Papazagolou singled to drive in two runs and then Hunter Hoskins tripled to deep left to clear the bases.

Fairfield got two back-to-back singles in the next two at bats for another run and then Lisk homered to right. Wheaton grounded out to short to wrap up the inning with Fairfield up 9-1.

FMHS responded with three in the bottom half. Fortado and Parsons both reached on infield errors. Wiseman singled to drive in Fortado, and Parsons when Denning singled to shallow left. Wiseman moved to third on the hit and then scored on a wild pitch. Gerdes flew out to short to end the rally with the Hounds down 9-4.

The Hounds couldn’t muster another score while the Trojans put up two in the third and fourth innings and one in the fifth that set the 10-run rule at 14-4 with Fort Madison unable to get a run across in the bottom of the fifth.

Cordray went 1 1/3 in the loss striking out one, walking three and giving up three runs all earned.

Falcons’ big innings too much for HTC

WEST POINT - West Burlington jumped out to a quick 4-0 lead and went on to a 13-7 win over Holy Trinity Tuesday night.

Jason Thurman went 2-for-3 with three RBI and a double to lead HTC at the plate. Garrett Hannum went 3-for-4 with two runs scored and Quentin Schneider went 2-for-4 with three runs scored.

Hannum went 3 2/3 innings giving up nine runs, four earned on 10 hits and struck out four. Zander Schweiss came on in relief going 3 1/3 allowing four runs on five hits and struck out two.

HTC had runners on first and second with no outs in the bottom of the first, but Reed Fehseke flew out to deep right field and Collin Thornton hit into a fielder's choice at second, before Vason Thurman fanned to end the threat.

The Falcons started the game with four out of the first five hitters getting to Hannum, including RBI doubles by Daniel Crooks and Colton Hohenthaner. Jacob Fritz and Masin Shullaw each had RBI singles before HTC retired the side.

After Hannum settled holding the Falcons scoreless in the second, the Crusaders got back in the game in the bottom of the second. Kosta Medland singled to right to start the inning and following a Cole Thornton strike out, Hannum singled to right moving Medland to second. Schweiss grounded out to first.

Schneider reached on an error that scored Medland and Hannum and then Schneider came around to score on Fehseke’s double down the line in right field. Collin Thornton then lined out to Crooks on the mound to end the inning with HTC 4-3.

HTC would get two more runs in the fourth on a Jason Thurman two RBI double to right center. Thurman would advance on a wild pitch. Fehseke grounded out to short before Collin Thornton and Vason Thurman would draw walks to load the bases with two outs. Medland then struck out to end the inning.

West Burlington hit through the lineup in the fourth, plating five more runs including a two RBI double by Shullaw to left. The Falcons would tack on four more in the top of the fifth with Fritz, Tyler Dameron and Crooks each scoring their third run of the game.

The Crusaders would nibble at the 13-5 lead with a run each in the sixth by Schneider and seventh by Hannum.

The Crusaders face in Fort Madison tonight in an 8 p.m. varsity only contest.

reached on an error when Barker mishandled Hannum’s grounder to third. Hannum advanced to second on a wild pitch, prompting a visit from Steeples to the mound. Chanderl Rung then reached when his grounder to third was mishandled by Fermont and advanced to second on a wild pitch, prompting a visit from Steeples to the mound.

“We pitched great. He ran out of gas late, but we haven’t run our pitchers 70 pitches yet,” Schinstock said.

He pitched great. He ran out of gas late, but we haven’t run our pitchers 70 pitches much, but we had Dayne ready to go if we needed him.”

Schinstock was without two starters – Kyle Bredemeyer, who was out for Denning’s arm, and Reed Felske who had to sit out after being ejected from Tuesday night’s game again West Burlington.

He said this week has been hard on the team going into the post season, but the Crusaders have just two regular season games left in the next seven days so they should be able to regroup.

“If you’ve had a week ago it would have been great. We came into this week thinking we could win three of the four in this week,” Schinstock said.

The Crusaders, now 7-14, are host Highland Thursday night and then travel to Keokuk next Thursday to end the regular season. District play starts the following week.

The Crusaders hope to improve to 3-13 on the season and host Centerville on Friday night.

The brown shed is from Rose’s West Burlington property. It now has become a playground for kids in the family. Both had a love for gardening and both lost their spouses on the same week. They have united to bring their sheds together on a truly inspiring garden path. How awesome of a “coming home” story is that? Missing Dean’s Produce? In 1993 the couple were well-known at Farmer’s Markets and for their blue shed food stand at the residence. Most will agree this garden to be one of the largest produce growing territories in recent years. However, what is grown now is just for family and friends, not the 6 acres of veggies like in the past. The couple were known for picking their wares ripe the day of the market they were attending. Sue has a new hobby in her post produce days, nurturing 8 boar goats from the bottle that are sure to entertain the crowd. An old smokehouse adorns the scene left from the previous owners. Dean has butchered plenty of hogs in that giant slow cooker. Perhaps someone can pounce at the chance for vintering. The brothers have owned wine for years, entering regional competitions. When this property came available a decade ago, Ed pounced at the chance for vintnering. The brothers have five types of grapevines: Concord, Edelweiss, Caco, St. Croix, and Swinson White. The property also sports 100 tomatoes and peppers of differing varieties. As well as Bitter Melon, Asian squash, watermelon, pumpkins, asparagus, broccoli, eggplant, strawberries, and blueberry bushes. Harvest occurs normally on Rodeo week-end.
