Firms reach out to city for bridge study

Axalta joins in funding with $5,000 contribution to city’s share of study costs

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

FORT MADISON - Fort Madison officials continue to help work toward a pending bridge study to examine potential improvements to the Burlington-Northern Santa Fe double deck swingspan bridge that connects Fort Madison and Illinois.

On Wednesday morning, Fort Madison City Manager and Larry Driscoll held a meeting with a prospective engineering firm interested in bidding the study work. Requests for proposals went out from the city seeking firms interested in bidding the study work.

“We’re just meeting with companies that are interested in the bidding on the proposal,” Varley said. “We sent the RFIs to 15 about engineering companies and now we’re talking with companies who want to know more specifically about the city’s history with the bridge and what we’d like to see out of the study.”

Varley said the city is ready to meet with any construction or engineering firms that want to submit offers to conduct the study.

The City of Fort Madison is the lead agent for the study and will serve as the financial agent for all grants and funds used to pay for the study. The study is projected to cost $360,000 with $728,000 being shared by the Illinois and Iowa Departments of Transportation and the city picking up the remaining $72,000. Iowa Fertilizer Co. has agreed to pay $40,000 of the city’s share. Varley said Axalta Coatings in Fort Madison has also now agreed to chip in for the cost.

“Axalta has volunteered to donate $5,000 to the cost of the study and with the $40,000 from the Iowa Fertilizer Co., the city now has 45,000 toward it’s $72,000 commitment to the study,” he said.

Members of the selection committee include Zach James of Southeast Iowa Regional Planning Commission, Larry Weber, the body of Donald Paul Kobs was recovered Friday morning by a Muscataine County rescue diver with the assistance of the Lee County Sheriff’s Department, Lee County Conservation, West Point Fire Department, West Point Police Department, Iowa DNR, and the Keokuk Fire Department. No foul play is expected at this time. The cause of death is pending due to a possible future autopsy.

On Thursday, the Des Moines County Sheriff’s Office requested assistance with locating Mr. Kobs, who was last seen by a neighbor as he was leaving his home around the noon hour to go fishing at Pollmiller Lake.

Demons hand FMHS losing season

Hounds stand at 2-5 with two games remaining on the year

BY CHUCK VANDENBERG
PCC EDITOR

WASHINGTON - Glimmers of what could have made this year a winning season, flashed like the lightning that forced three delays in a 32-7 Bloodhound loss Friday night on the road in Washington.

With a deluge of rain, cracks of lightning, and a field that was barely a field, Washington took advantage of two defensive touchdowns and a couple of throwing scores to keep the Hounds off balance in Southeast Conference football action.

Fort Madison quarterback Lennon Barker through three interceptions on the night, two for touchdowns.

The game was moved to a 6 p.m. start time with a 30-minute lightning rule. The Hounds took the opening kickoff, forcing a 50-minute delay.

Fort Madison quarterback Lennon Barker through three interceptions on the night, two for touchdowns.

The Hounds held Turner under 100 yards on the ground and 148 through the air with a stout defense. Barker accounts for about 73% of the Demon offense.

Barker looked right on a screen pass and threw to a Demon defender who jumped the route and ran in untouched for the score. Then with 6:45 left in the third quarter after an impressive 9-play, 52-yard drive, Barker looked to dump a pass over a blitz, but 6’-4” Trashaun Willis, who plays with only one arm, reached up and blocked the pass, then quickly coraled the ball and raced 95-yards the other way for the score to make it 22-7.

Above, the Bloodhounds’ Alec Craft, center, and Danen Settles (57) chase down Washington quarterback Luke Turner in Friday’s rainy deluge at Case Field. The Demons won 32-7 in a game that was delayed three times due to lightning in the area.

The Hounds fell victim of the first pick six on the field that was delayed 73% of the Demon offense.

"We came out flat and, after that first weather delay, we played some of the best football we’ve played all season.”

Tony Shiffman, FMHS head coach

The Hounds could have come out of the lightning delay with their heads down after the game had started. "There’s nothing you can do about that,” he said. “We came out flat and, after that first weather delay, we played some of the best football we’ve played all season.”

Brady Redd-Donald.

Kaeli Maestro had a couple of hard runs for 12 yards for a Fort Madison first down, but a 12-yard loss on a high snap forced the Hounds to the air where Barker missed on two tries, forcing a punt that was returned to the Hounds’ 21. Turner took the first snap and found Cade Pohren in the back of the endzone for the first points of the night.

The Hounds fell victim of the first pick six on the first play after a touchback. With the Demons up 15-0 after the ensuing kickoff, forcing a 50-minute delay. Hounds’ head coach Tony Shiffman said the Hounds could have come out of the lightning delay with their heads down after the game had started. "There’s nothing you can do about that,” he said. “We came out flat and, after that first weather delay, we played some of the best football we’ve played all season.”

The Hounds went four and out on their first possession after retaking the field, but forced the same on the Demons. Fort Madison then put together a 12-play, 75-yard scoring drive capped by Maestro’s second rushing score of the year from 1yard out on a sweep to the right where he found a gap and, literally, slipped into the endzone cutting the lead to 15-7.

The rain then made moving the ball difficult as both teams exchanged punts on the following two possessions. After a punt to the Washington 18, the Demons went 64 yards in mixing Turner runs and throws getting to the Hounds’ 17, but Turner threw incomplete in the left flat on 4th and 4 turning the ball over to FMHS.

Shiffman then put junior Diego Lozano in the backfield offset from Barker. Lozano slipped past the Demon line and Barker flipped the ball over to FMHS.

They turned the ball over to the Hounds’ 21 after Barker was sacked for a 9-yard loss forcing a punt. The two teams traded punts again and Settles got one of his sacks at 2nd and 8 to end the half.

Out of the lockerroom, Turner threw a couple in-completions after Tristan Westphal-Edwards went for about 12 yards on two muddy carries up the middle, but the Demons punted to the Fort Madison 23.

Maestro and Barker took turns off a read running out of bounds. Maestro couldn’t get anything on

Shiffman: We played with them almost four quarters

1st and 10 and Barker threw incomplete on second down. On third down, Barker tried to dump it over the middle but Willis got the pick six to kill the Hounds’ momentum with 6:45 left in the third and the Demons up 22-7.

“...was a bonehead call on my part and I totally take the blame on that one,” Shiffman said.

The Demons would convert a 31-yard field goal to make it 25-7 and then, in the fourth quarter, Cade Hennigan would leap in the back of the endzone and come down with a 22-yard scoring catch to set the final at 32-7.

Shiffman said the game was closer than the score indicated, but the Hounds continue to play with flashes of potential and have yet to put their best game on the field.

“Really, at 32-7, the score was a lot closer than that and that’s the truly frustrating part. We played with this team for almost four quarters. We’ve just gotta be a better team. We have good moments, but that goes to show what we’ve been talking about...about not letting adversity get to us.”

The Hounds (2-5) have two games remaining, the first on the road at Mt. Pleasant and then at home to wrap up the season with Keokuk.

Shiffman said the motivation for the Hounds to win out and end the season on a good note.

“The motivation is still to win two games and win out. To beat a good Mt. Pleasant team and then keep the county seat at home,” Shiffman said. “In reality, we want these seniors to go out winning eight games. Who’s the last class in Fort Madison that can say they won eight games? Let’s go 1-0 and then worry about Keokuk after that.”

Barker ended the game with 15 carries for 13 yards including the 53-yard scamper. He was 16-27 passing for 57 yards and three interceptions. Lozano had 14 yards on three carries and five tackles. Maestro led the Hounds on the ground with 55 yards and a touchdown. Redd-Donald picked off one of Turner’s passes in the endzone to kill a drive in the first quarter.

FMHS junior Kaeli Maestro (47) gets loose on the left side of the field for an 11-yard touchdown run in the first half of the Bloodhounds’ 32-7 loss at Washington Friday night. The Hounds fall to 2-5 on the year with two games remaining in the season.

Cause of death in Pollmiller death unknown

Park in rural West Point, Iowa, and had not been heard from since. Family members were concerned for his well-being due to recent health issues he was experiencing.

Deputies of the Lee County Sheriff’s Office located a vehicle at the boat ramp of Pollmiller Park registered to Mr. Kobs. Also located near the parking area of the boat ramp area was a chair and fishing gear with the keys to the car and a wallet that belonged to Mr. Kobs.

With the assistance of the West Point Fire Department, Keokuk Fire Department, and the West Point Police Department, a search was started at the lake in an attempt to find Mr. Kobs. The search lasted well into the night and into the morning hours, stopping due to weather. Deputies of the Lee County Sheriff’s Office began to search again at daybreak with the assistance of the West Point Police Department, Iowa DNW, Lee County Conservation, and a Muscatine County Sheriff’s Deputy.

With the use of Lee County K9 Gunner, it was apparent that Mr. Kobs had walked from his car to the dock, where his fishing gear and personal items were found. No other scents were tracked leaving the area. The use of side scan sonar from two DNR boats were utilized and the Muscatine County Deputy used scuba gear to dive into the water to thoroughly search for Mr. Kobs.

The body of Mr. Kobs was recovered in the water and he was examined by the Lee County Medical Investigator Bill Young after he was removed from the water. Weber extended a thank you to the agencies that assisted in this search and recovery, a special thank you to Lee County Chaplain Father Mark Spring for his support to the family at their time of need, and to Kребiel Farms for the use of a drone to help search the surrounding area and shoreline of Pollmiller Park.
