Farmington ag community pulls together after Faulkners killed in motor vehicle accident

A visitation will be held Friday, June 14 at the Schmitz Funeral Home in Donnellson at noon and the family will receive friends from 3:30 to 7 p.m. A graveside service will be held at Hickory Haven Cemetery in rural Farmington at 10:30 a.m. with the processional leaving the funeral home at 10 a.m.

The accident is devastating for both the Faulkner family and the surrounding community. The impact of both LaVerne and Michael could clearly be seen in the events that followed their deaths shortly after.

Taking it upon themselves, Chuck Westfall and community members throughout the Donnellson area teamed up to help the Faulkner family finish planting its corn and bean crops on the Faulkner family farm located on the countryside in Donnellson.

VIRGINIA ANN (FOLKER) CARNES

Virginia Ann (Folker) Carnes, 90, of Gladstone, Illinois passed away peacefully on June 6, 2019 at Monmouth Nursing Home in Monmouth, Illinois. She was born March 14, 1929 in Burlington, Iowa to Cyrus and Aletha (Boyd) Folker.

Virginia was known for her work ethic, whether it was assisting on the family farm with her MANY siblings (16! Edith Carol, deceased as an infant) or the many labor intensive jobs she went on to have the rest of her adult years. Virginia was a worker. But she also had one of the sharpest senses of humor of anyone you could ever hope to meet. Virginia also liked to race and loved her GTOs.

Survivors include her sisters: Verna (Clair) Lubke of Warsaw, Missouri; Sharon Folker of Burlington, Iowa; Delores Moser of New Boston, Illinois; and brothers: Ronald (Ellen) Folker of Statesboro, Georgia; James (Roxie) Folker of Revere, Missouri; and Steven Folker of Farmington, Iowa.

Virginia is also survived by her children: Timothy Harmon of Burlington, Iowa; Debi (Dennis) Lovins of Dayton Beach, Florida; Rick (Thais) Harmon of Le-max, Illinois; Annette (Marty) Remick of Burlington, Iowa; and Jesse (Michelle) Carnes of Gladstone, Illinois; Paul (Debbie) Carnes of Oquawka, Illinois; 17 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; and three great-great grandchildren.

Besides her parents, Virginia was preceded in death by her sisters: Edith Carol Folker; Verlene Butts; and Joyce Rutledge and brothers: Cyrus Folker; Marvin Folker; Paul Folker; Dale Folker; Norman Folker; and Robert Folker. Virginia was also preceded in death by her children: Randall Lee Harmon and infant sons: Danny Ray Harmon and J.R. Lindsey.

The family will greet friends beginning at 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, June 18, 2019 at Schmitz Funeral Home in Farmington, Iowa with the service at 11:00 a.m. Burial will be at Christy Cemetery, near Mount Sterling, Iowa. Schmitz Funeral Home of Farmington is assisting the family with arrangements. On-line condolences to the family may be made at www.schmitzfuneralhomes.com.

Lady Hounds win 3 in QC

BY PCC STAFF

DAVENPORT – The Fort Madison Lady Hounds tallied three wins in less than six hours on Tuesday as part of a Quad Cities tournament.

The Hounds got the best of Davenport Central in the key matchup of the day when senior Vanessa Golowach wore a pitch with the count full and the bases loaded to move Cassie Powers home with the winning run for a 6-5 win in a five-inning contest.

The Lady Hounds trailed 5-2 going into the home half of the fifth. Olivia Williams and Kylee Cashman each singled to start the rally and then Mayzee Featheringill laced a double to deep left center scoring both runners with no outs.

Powers then singled to center moving Alyson Helmick, who was pinch-running for Featheringill to third. Powers moved to second on a throw to third trying to get Helmick advancing. Helmick come around to score on a wild pitch to tie the game at 5. Logan Johnson and Ivy Geerdes would get back-to-back walks to load the bases for Dalyn Wondra.

Wondra would pop into an infield fly rule for the first out, but Golowach would then work the count full in the next at bat before getting plunked for the first out, but Golowach would then work the count full and the doubleheader was moved to Tuesday at Fort Madison High School.

The Hounds were with-in one run of Washington through three innings in game No. 1, but a big top of the fourth helped the Demons take game one 10-4. Fort Madison flipped the script in game two, walking away with a 9-1 bounce back win behind the arm of Dayne Cordray.

Dennis also had a couple RBI on two hits for the Hounds from her lead-off spot. Featheringill had a couple hits and two RBI.

Powers went the distance giving up five runs, four earned, on 11 hits including a home run. She’s 4-3 on the year.

In the opener, Fort Madison rolled Tipton 7-2 behind a complete game, six-hit performance from Neely Rehm. The eighth-grade hurler struck out eight while not surrendering an earned run. She also went 2-0 at the plate with an RBI.

Fort Madison led 1-0 through until the bottom of the third when the Lady Hounds brought five over the dish. Jasmine Bass led off with a single in the first and Williams would get plunked and Johnson would fan for the first out. Then Featheringill, Powers and Geerdes put together a string of singles with one out.

After Wondra grounded out to short for the second out, Rehm drilled a single straight up the middle scoring two to make it 6-0, but would get caught stealing to end the inning.

Fort Madison would score one more in the fourth inning and Tipton would salvage a run in the fifth and sixth but Rehm would slam to door when she picked off Tipton’s Keels Claussen to end the game 7-2.

In the final game of the day, the Lady Hounds found themselves against a young Easton Valley with only one senior on the squad.

Fort Madison would jump out to a quick 7-1 lead through three highlighted by Williams 2 RBI double in the bottom half of the third.

Freshman Katie Dennis was in the circle for Fort Madison and threw just 71 pitches allowing one earned run, fanning six and not allowing a walk. Williams went 3-for-4 at the plate with the 2 RBI. Dennis also had a couple on two hits for the Lady Hounds. Helmick went 2 for 2 with a two runs scored and couple walks.

Fort Madison has won six straight dating back to June 5 and is now 8-6 on the year. Dennis is 3-1 on the year with a meager 2.51 ERA.

Reichelts’ 3 RBI double key to Hounds split

BY ETHAN LILLARD

FORT MADISON– Coming into Tuesday’s contest against Washington, Fort Madison baseball team was riding high on a three-game win streak. The Bloodhounds were originally set to take on the Demons May 24, but the games were rained out and the doubleheader was moved to Tuesday at Fort Madison High School.

The Hounds were with-in one run of Washington through three innings in game No. 1, but a big top of the fourth helped the Demons take game one 10-4. Fort Madison flipped the script in game two, walking away with a 9-1 bounce back win behind the arm of Dayne Cordray.

GAME ONE
Washington started game one with back-to-back singles before a sacrifice groundout plated the first run of the game for the Demons. The ground-out was followed by another single, as Washington took a 2-0 lead in the top of the first.

Fort Madison had plenty of opportunities to snatch the lead in the first two innings, loading the bases on separate occasions, but couldn’t make anything happen.

“Tonight we put together some good at bats and hit balls right at people,” Fort Madison Head Coach Ron Walker said. “We’re at least getting in the box now and competing in that situation and giving our guys the chance to drive in some runs.”

Singles were the theme for the Demons during the first three innings, as two singles, two walks and a fielder’s choice gave Washington a 3-0 ad-vantage heading into the bottom half of the third inning.

Back-to-back walks to Dayne Cordray and Vasin Thurman allowed Brandon Reichelt to collect the first RBI of the game for Fort Madison and trim the lead to 3-1 in the third.

Two straight strikeouts were followed by Vasin Thurman coming around to score on some heads up base running and a passed ball at third, as Washington’s lead dwindled to 3-2.

The momentum the Bloodhounds were able to build in the bottom of the third was short lived, as Washington came alive at the plate in the top half runs of the four scoring six to put the game at 9-2.

Things started to come back around for Fort Madison in the bottom of the fifth inning. Cordray walked, Reichelt singled and Feheste also singled to load the bases for Fort Madison with just one out. Another single from Tate Johnson plated both Thurman and Reichelt for the Hounds final runs of the game, getting to within 9-4.

A double coupled with a Fort Madison fielding error gave Washington the final run of the game, as the Demons went on to take game one by the final of 10-4.

“You never feel like you performed well when you know you could have done better,” Walker said. “Obviously we know we didn’t play our best game. Our energy was down …”

Cordray sparkles as Hounds salvage nightcap

We didn't compete for seven innings and were pretty flat. You can't do that against a good team. Gerdes was hit with the loss throwing 66 pitches over three innings, allowing five hits and five earned runs. Johnson paced Fort Madison with two RBIs, while Reichelt and Fehseke each collected two hits at the plate in game one.

GAME TWO

Cordray drew the start in game two and delivered with his most dominant performance of the season. After forcing Washington into a three-up, three-down top of the first, Fort Madison took control. Landes Williams started the home-half of the first with a bunt single before Jason Thurman singled himself in the two hole. Gerdes flew out the next at bat, but moved Williams to third. Cordray then walked to load the bases, before Vasin Thurman struck out to leave the bases loaded with two outs for Reichelt.

Unlike game one when the Bloodhounds left the bases loaded on two different occasions, Reichelt came up with a bases-clearing double that gave Fort Madison a 3-0 lead.

"Next thing I know we had two outs and the bases loaded and I thought, 'Here we go again,'" Walker said. "Then Brandon Reichelt delivered a nice three-run double with two outs that really set the tone for the night."

Cordray hit his only real snag the following inning, as the Demons loaded the bases on three walks, before plating their first run on a single to trim the lead down to 3-1. The Bloodhounds returned the favor their next trip to the plate, starting the home half of the second with walks from Johnson and Jace Burgher before another Williams bunt single plated Johnson and moved Burgher to second. Gerdes came through with a single following a walk, plating Williams for a 6-1 Fort Madison lead.

A three-up, three-down top of the third was followed with another big inning from Cordray. A three-run, three-down top of the third was followed with another big inning from Cordray.

Fehseke walked and Burgher singled before Fehseke came all the way around to score on wild pitches. Williams then walked, leading to a Jason Thurman single that scored Burgher to push the lead to 8-1.

Gerdes then walked to load the bases again before Thurman came away with a walk of his own to bring in Williams for the 9-1 lead.

Cordray dealt the rest of the way, allowing just two more hits as Fort Madison went on to win by the final of 9-1.

"We came back in game two and competed well," Walker said. "We had a great approach attacking the game. (Dayne) competed well and really attacked the zone. He was in control the whole game."

Cordray tossed 111 pitches over his complete game, allowing just three hits and one earned run while striking out eight batters. Reichelt led the way at the plate with three RBI, while Gerdes had two RBI.

The Bloodhounds are now 7-5 on the season and will take on Washington again this Thursday at Washington.

Friendship in the field goes back 50 years

...er son) that his dad and brother were gone, I just told my wife I had to take off," Westfall said. "I left on my own and came out here."

Westfall has been farming around the Donnellson area for more than 50 years now. With LaVerne being slightly younger, he and Westfall had farmed around the same area for more than 50 years.

"I lived two to three miles down the road," Westfall said. "We've been friends for 50 years probably, LaVerne and I. And I helped raise his sons."

LaVerne and Chuck raised LaVerne's sons on the same down-home roots that were instilled in them. When Westfall's wife recently passed away around two years ago, those roots shown through brighter than ever as Michael was one of the first ones there; Westfall said choking back tears. "So it's just payback."

While Westfall was great friends with the Faulkner family and helped to spearhead the efforts, there were many others from around the area who helped to make it all possible.

"There's been a lot of people call to help," Westfall said. "A lot of people have asked and I don't know half of their names. I'm just a little pea in the pod. I just brought the pod. I just brought the seed."

Continuing to showcase his modesty, Westfall balked when asked how many acres he had helped plant so far, but did say regardless of how many acres, every last cent is going to go back to his long-time friends' family farm.

"That young man who planted them could tell you exactly how many acres," Westfall said pointing to his godson Steffensmeier. "I would say 300 to 400 of their own. I'm going to do another guy's that Michael planted 100 acres for him and the check goes to the Faulkner Family Farms. I don't want a penny for it. It all goes to them."

Even while having his own farm to tend to, it was an immediate instinct for Westfall to drop what he was doing and go help when he was called to action. The same goes for the other dozens of farmers involved in the process.

When asked why he and his friends felt so compelled to take time away from their own farms to help the Faulkner family with the process, the answer was simple.

"That's what (we) grew up doing," Westfall said. "That's what we do in the Midwest. That's what happens out here."
